Animalphabet B. P. Mack 2011-04-01 Animalphabet is as easy as A, B, C. This fun children's book will captivate youngsters as well as parents, as readers learn about animals represented by letters of the alphabet. Each letter corresponds to the first name of a character. Reading about animals and their traits bring the animal kingdom to life. Humans can learn a lot from animals, as each one possesses at least one personality trait that we would do well to use in our own lives. Animalphabet touches on the importance of conservation and saving our resources. Since we share our planet with animals, let's hear what they have to say on the subject! Says author B. P. Mack, I have an overwhelming love of animals and I had thought many, many times that the qualities I saw in many animals were wonderful qualities, and that we as humans would be better off if we learned from them. All animals inspire me, as do children. Children exhibit honesty just as purely as animals do.
