Mountain-Moving Prayer Debra Green 2019-03-21 'If what stands in your way is too high to climb, too hard to dig under or too big to go round - it's time for mountain-moving prayer!' - Anthony Delaney, Ivy Church, Manchester The toughest challenges can be tackled, defeated and shifted aside by faith-fuelled prayer. Relational struggles, financial strangleholds, emotional strife; whatever your mountain, through prayer God's power can move it. The huge challenges casting shadows across our communities can also be addressed through prayer. 'God will move our personal mountains, but we mustn't stop there. His goal is to transform the lives of those around us as well,' observes Debra. 'God's call to me from the very beginning was to focus prayer on the big, specific issues causing social fragmentation: lack of aspiration amongst young people, elderly isolation, family failures, distrust and separation between ethnic groups. These mountains need moving in most neighbourhoods.' 'I work with police colleagues of many faiths and many of no faith - all are in awe when they witness what can be unlocked in this way.' - Olivia Pinkney QPM MA, Chief Constable, Hampshire Constabulary Author and popular speaker Debra Green

EDUCATIONAL STRATEGY was created using different activities that were already working to help educate children in this age group at the church that I was attending. All I did was design a program that consolidated these activities into a predictable rotating program that provides variety with an element of suspense to keep the children coming back from week to week.

The Gospel Under the Northern Lights Wes Bredenhof 2011-12-01 In 2000, the Smithers Canadian Reformed Church called Wes Bredenhof to be a missionary working among the First Nations in north-central British Columbia. The Gospel Under the Northern Lights tells the story of how that call came to be and how it was carried out. The forests and mountains of BC seem to naturally produce heaps of characters, stories, and adventures. This memoir introduces you to some of them. Along the way you'll hear of what a privilege and challenge it is to be a messenger of the gospel to a broken world and how that good news of Jesus Christ is still what it is desperately needed among all nations.

The Lord Strengthens Our Faith, Our Hearing, Our Prayers, & Our Decisions Allen J. Bachoroski
2022-06-17 The Lord Strengthens Our Faith, Our Hearing, Our Prayers, & Our Decisions By: Allen Bachoroski This author's journey towards faith is candidly shared, starting with his unbelief and traveling through scripture in search of answers to business decisions, overcoming addictions, hearing God's voice and being healed from cancer. Mr. Bachoroski's scripturally based book is filled with personal and Biblical examples. The reader will find their faith growing as they explore areas of unbelief and learn how The Lord Strengthens Our Faith, Our Hearing, Our Prayers and Our Decisions. The first section about faith makes for an interesting read when Hebrew names are used to describe Bachoroski's personal experiences with faith. The next section is about hearing from God by exploring 21 different ways to hear Him. Then he documents promises from Jesus that can be used in prayer. Bachoroski reviews events in the life of Jesus in which the promises are taught. Finally, a section that uses Bachoroski's 35 years in school administration, sharing scripture that helped in his decisions-making. One hard decision was believing in healing so he shares 19 passages that lead to healing. The four areas where The Lord Strengthens are faith, hearing, prayers, and decisions. The appendix reviews 150 scriptural passages that are described in the book to help with personal research and group discussions.

Dreamer Who's Been Extremely Blessed Edgar Francis Poree Jr. 2013-03-18 Edgar Frances Poree Jr., a lifelong resident of Louisiana, looks back at his struggles, disappointments, and successes in this memoir that examines the African American experience in the South. As a Black male, he dealt with deeply rooted prejudices, religious discrimination, and conflict with older members of the Black community. He constantly faced inner turmoil, but he remained steadfast in his focus to achieve his goals and navigate the transition from segregation to integration. Poree learned to be resourceful early, convincing the owner of a nearby grocery store to give him a job cleaning the store and organizing the shelves. He went on to start his own business polishing hardwood floors while in the seventh grade. His love for music eventually helped him earn a scholarship at Xavier University in New Orleans, and from there he was on his way. From his teaching career to his successes as a business executive and civic leader, Poree shares his memories of real people, real places, and real divisions. His hope is that you'll be emboldened, encouraged and inspired to achieve your own dreams.

Heaven's Awards' Day Kay Mortimer 2018-11 Will believers in Jesus Christ face any judgment? If so, what will it be like? What is the "judgment seat of Christ" that Paul spoke of? Is it really "judgment," or does it mean something different? What about the promised rewards Scripture speaks of? How and when will they be given? How are they decided? This drama script (approximately 45 minutes when performed) seeks to reverently and accurately answer those questions and more, revealing what Christians have to look forward to, and how it should motivate their daily lives. Some Christians may cringe when they hear "the judgment seat of Christ," but this play seeks to remove any such trepidation and replace it with proper perspective and expectant joy. The author includes among its pages:--The licensing arrangement, Leave Well Enough Alone Rosemary Wells 2012-11-20 It's going to be a brilliant summer for Dorothy—but suddenly, the sun hides behind the clouds and a secret she couldn't have imagined appears . . . While on a class trip to a museum, fourteen-year-old Dorothy Coughlin can't believe her luck: She practically falls into a summer job as a nanny for a wealthy family in Pennsylvania, in the biggest house she has ever seen. It doesn't even matter that she's not experienced with children, or that the family is a little strange. She'll be paid $400 for the summer—money she can use for college. But her employer, Mrs. Hoade, is awkward and anxious. Is she hiding something? Sweet and harmless Mr. Hoade, on the other hand—with his movie-star looks—has a strange personality. And when Dorothy discovers the secret one of the Hoades is hiding in the guest cottage, everything changes. This summer could change the course of her life, that is, if she survives! This ebook features an illustrated biography of Rosemary Wells including rare images from the author's collection.

You Are Already Praying Cathy H. George 2013-03-01 The goal of prayer is to practice it without ceasing. Focusing on the prayer lives of the laity, this book includes stories of individuals seeking to connect their faith with their work in the world. The goal of this connection is to affirm that prayer is both a quiet act of reverence and an active dynamic expressed in daily life situations at work and home. Through the stories of people at work and prayer, the book seeks to encourage an understanding of prayer as that dimension of our relationship with God equally alive at work and at play, in public and at home.

Sensational Piety Murtala Ibrahim 2022-08-11 Grounded in anthropological comparison and the concept of materiality, this book offers an in-depth ethnographic study of the similarities and differences among various forms of religious practices in a Pentecostal Church (Christ Embassy) and an Islamic group (NASFAT) in the Nigerian capital of Abuja. Scholarship in this area tends to focus on inter-religious contestations and conflicts; however, this book proposes that another dynamic is unfolding between Christians and Muslims that is characterised by conviviality, interfaith joint action programmes, mutual influences and even the exchange of religious forms. The comparative approach reveals that, notwithstanding the seemingly opposed worldviews and divergences between Muslims and Christians, they all face similar challenges and apply similar techniques for meeting the challenges posed by the precarious Nigerian urban environment. It is through practices - especially those conducted in (semi-) public settings - that people from different religious persuasions define, encroach on and feel the weight of each other's presence.
