Story Hour Jeri Kladder 2003-07-10 Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children. For the librarian, it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books. But coming up with new ideas that hold the children's attention can be trying. Until now. Here are 55 tried-and-true story hour programs with a thematic approach. All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range. Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one-hour programs: barnyard animals, the Caldecott Medal, colors, families, a storytelling feast, the five senses, reptiles and amphibians, and around the world. There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs. All story hours provide ideas for name tags, suggested audiovisual materials, recommended story, poetry and song selections, additional titles and a full description of the activity.

Poems of Life Charles Harrison 2008-02 These poems were written by a retired physician who had never had any experience as a professional writer. He had always had a love of poetry, but didn't have the time to pursue this endeavor. He learned early on that he had an aptitude for poetic writing. He was encouraged by his wife and many close friends who read some of his first poems. These poems cover a large range of events which could be encountered in life. The poems are encompassing enough that people from many cultural and ethnic backgrounds should be able to find them quite interesting. They are not based in totality on any specific occurrences which the author encountered. His life as an Afro-American, growing up in the South during the era of Segregation and during the Great Depression did have a great influence on his writing.

Emma Dilemma Kristine O'Connell George 2011 Emma is Jess's little sister and her dilemma. The highlights and low points of this sibling relationship are evoked in short and simple poems.

Life Poems Liz Tweedy 2012-01-13 This book is about an inspirational story about living your life. It is about life being hard, but you have to focus on what you want and live it to the fullest. Life poems is one of the first books in the Life poem series. Life is something to be proud of. This book is telling the story of life by using the Author Elisabeth Tweedys perspective on her life story. In order to succeed in this life, a person must keep writing in their life chapter. A person must focus on being strong and never giving up on life, even when it becomes hard. Each poem in this book, reflects how life is special in every way. This book should be a wakeup call for people to live their life and to never think that it is a waste of time.

Under the Chinaberry Tree Ann Ruethling 2007-12-18 Celebrating Chinaberry's twentieth anniversary, the women behind America's beloved children's book catalog share their wisdom about the joys of children's literature and parenting. The Chinaberry catalog was created when Ann Ruethling became troubled by the violence in many old-fashioned nursery stories and the poor grammar or mediocre plots in newer children's books. Handpicking a hundred high-quality titles a year, she has become an indispensable friend to thousands of parents, and Chinaberry has become a gold standard for its industry. Under the Chinaberry Tree celebrates the world of children's books. In warm "one-mother-to-another" prose, Ruethling and her business partner, Patti Pitcher, reflect on the family-first concepts that resonate so strongly with Chinaberry fans and all parents. Exploring the books that have made a difference in their children's lives, the tender experience of reading with children and the moments that make parenting a unique journey, this guide is sure to enrich every family's bookshelf.

Poems for All Seasons and All Kinds of Reasons Debra L. Marlar 2010-11 This book of Poetry is a culmination of many kinds of ideas and feelings that have been penned by Deb Marlar. If an event, a happening feeling, or a special day strikes her just right, a poem will emerge. The inspirations for her poems are Debs family, friends, and the world around her. You will find poems about holidays, vacations, and special people in her life, just as the title suggests. This book of poetry has a little something for all ages, and she hopes you will find some that will amuse and touch you in a very good way.

At Least He Shuts Up When He Writes Jr. Don Lundquist 2004-10 It all starts with the lament of a poets' significant other, then ascends and descends to new rhyming environments on every page. You'll be touched by descriptions of Don's relationships, chance encounters, hobbies, and even his family dog. Throw in a couple of trips to the moon, some sarcastic views of classic art mainstays, and even some respectful tributes to special people who have lived their lives to the fullest. This poetic endeavor is about living positively in a world where humor is its strongest pulse, where love, honesty, and togetherness is a driving force, and where laughter is an underlying gift from a great and merciful Creator. Combine these themes with the skillful, artistic interpretations of talented young artist Bethany Pomranky and you have At Least He Shuts Up When He Writes. Open up, hang on, and be entertained, for life is the entertainment that created...Poetry!

Children's Literature in the Elementary School Charlotte S. Huck 1979 In "Children's Literature in the Elementary School" Charlotte S. Huck advances the view that exposing children to good quality children's literature is a vital element of successful school reading programs. Books for children should be 1) works of high literary quality, 2) useful in the curriculum, and 3) appeal to the young reader. Volumes that address this subject have traditionally been tasked with meeting a wide variety of objectives in higher education: if adopted by education departments methodological matters are stressed; under the school of library science bibliography is the object; and under the English department textual analysis is emphasized. This text is sufficiently broad as to adapt itself to any one of these approaches, and should serve as a valuable guide for teachers, librarians, and elementary educators in any capacity.

Whispers in the Wind Steve Cyphers 2013-11-14 Steve Cyphers' poems and short stories, written over the past fifteen or so years, explore the deeper meanings that lie within the "vast, hidden world" beneath the surface of everyday events, thoughts, and observations. His view is from the standpoint of a life well-lived in an effort to participate fully in each experience-whether painful, touching, profound, or silly. Whispers in the Wind ponders those occasions where the passion and purpose of our lives are revealed if we will only listen more carefully to our own inner voices and, perhaps, to the subtle whispers of those who have lived before. This collection is a joyful and appreciative celebration of the extraordinary alongside the ordinary. The author invites you to share his learnings, smile or laugh at the funny parts, and hopefully, find some pieces that you connect with and help you along your own journey under rocks, behind bushes, and within your heart.

Stop Pretending Sonya Sones 2011-02-22 It happens just like that, in the blink of an eye. An older sister has a mental breakdown and has to be hospitalized. A younger sister is left behind to cope with a family torn apart by grief and friends who turn their backs on her. But worst of all is the loss of her big sister, her confidante, her best friend, who has gone someplace no one can reach. In the tradition of The Bell Jar, I Never Promised You a Rose Garden, and Lisa, Bright and Dark comes this haunting first book told in poems, and based on the true story of the author's life. 2000 Best Books for Young Adults (ALA) and 2000 Quick Picks for Young Adults (Recomm. The Feelings Within a Kid Poems Robert E. Parker V 2022-10-20 Rob finally opens up with this poetry and shows it has many categories, opening a door into his life for his audience. Love Falling deep into it, finding out what it is and how it work and times just wanting to discard it Feeling towards others Finds poetry as the best way to express the feelings of one, my a note with a big meaning Or a letter pouring out everything Feeling within the kid Running into the worse problems and having the heaviest feeling sitting on your heart. After Rob realized he had a skill for writing, he started to use writing to cope with the things he went through instead of turning to hurting himself, other people or doing some to regret. Rob started his big break as a writer by letting his readers in on his journey as a poet, with his poetry notebook "The Feelings Within Da Kid Poems VOL 1". Rob's poetry is described as "uncensored" in a way of being wild, off the wall, real, and not accepted in society as censored. When Rob decided to put together "The Feeing Within Da Kid Poems VOL 1", he was only seventeen
