Indonesian Stories for Language Learners Katherine Davidsen 2021-08-17 This diverse anthology of traditional tales from across the Indonesian archipelago includes short stories, origin myths, historical legends, poetry, diary entries, news reports and dialogues. Each of the 20 stories is presented in parallel English and Indonesian versions on facing pages, making this a great resource for intermediate language learners. Although written in the Indonesian national language, the stories hail from many different ethnic cultures and include a number of female characters who reveal the challenges faced by women in Indonesian society. In adopting this approach, the authors make the stories relevant and engaging for students, as well as provide fascinating windows onto the regional cultures found among these islands. The stories in this volume include: "Forbidden Love"—A story from West Kalimantan that tells of the tragic love between two first cousins who had to pay a hefty price for their love "Freshwater Dolphins of the Mahakam River"—A story in the form of blog reports from Borneo telling the legend of the freshwater dolphins in the Mahakam River and the challenges faced by the peoples of East Kalimantan "Pitung, the Hero of Batavia"—A story from Jakarta in which a Robin Hood-like figure who stole from the rich to pay the poor, played a heroic role in defending the poor against foreign-run gangs in colonial times And many more! Authors Katherine Davidsen and Yusep Cuandani are experienced language teachers who use these texts in their high school classes at international schools in Jakarta to fulfill the requirements for International Baccalaureate and Cambridge IGCSE curriculum courses in Indonesian language and culture. The stories are graded in terms of difficulty. Each one is accompanied by a set of discussion questions, a detailed vocabulary list, cultural notes keyed to the text and online native-speaker audio recordings. An extensive Indonesian-English glossary is provided at the back of the book.

Odour Of Chrysanthemums D. H. Lawrence 2013-05-14 “Odour of Chrysanthemums” is the story of Elizabeth, a young wife and mother waiting for her alcoholic husband, Walter, to return home from what she assumes is another night of drinking. This assumption, along with Elizabeth’s pre-conceptions about her husband and their relationship are broken down when his body is brought home from the coal mine where he works. In “Odour of Chrysanthemums” author D. H. Lawrence explores the concept of human isolation and the nature of love and relationships. With the sudden death of her husband Elizabeth is forced to re-examine her opinions and beliefs, shedding light on a marriage she had given up on long before. Elementary Classical Chinese 初级文言文 V1-S01-25 DAVID YAO Classical Chinese (文言文) , also known as Literary Chinese, is the language of the classic literature from the end of the Spring and Autumn period through to the end of the Han dynasty, a written form of Old Chinese. Classical Chinese is a traditional style of written Chinese that evolved from the classical language, making it different from any modern spoken form of Chinese. Literary Chinese was used for almost all formal writing in China until the early 20th century. Most Chinese people with at least a middle school education are able to read basic Classical Chinese, because the ability to read (but not write) Classical Chinese is part of the Chinese middle school and high school curricula and is part of the college entrance examination. Modern plain style Chinese language (白话文) vocabularies are originated from Classical Chinese (文言文). So, you can consider Classical Chinese is the origin of modern Chinese language. In order for you to trace the root of Chinese language and reach proficient level in Chinese, we present a whole set of Classical Chinese (文言文), namely: Elementary Classical Chinese 初级文言文 50 篇 Middle School Classical Chinese 中级文言文 100 篇 High School Classical Chinese 高级文言文 100 篇 We will give Classical Chinese and plain style Chinese language interpretation. We also give detail Chinese-English bilingual vocabulary explanations and expansions. Please pay attention to this part which will expand your vocabularies significantly! Each PDF book will contain 25 articles and will be launched within 3 months. Related online quiz and Video course with detail explanations by our teacher will be launched separately in our online system. Schools and centers can use this as textbook or extra reading. We are licensing program for school and centers.
