Women Political Leaders in Rwanda and South Africa Naleli Mpho Soledad Morojele 2016-01-25 Narratives of Triumph and Loss explores the successes, challenges and controversies of women's post-conflict political leadership. Through interviews with women who have held significant leadership positions, the book explores the relationships between their educational, professional, activist and personal backgrounds. It situates their stories within historical and contemporary political contexts, illustrating the gendered ways in which women experience politics as citizens and politicians.

Going to the Mountain Ndaba Mandela 2018-06-26 The first-ever book to tell Nelson Mandela's life through the eyes of the grandson who was raised by him, chronicling Ndaba Mandela's life living with, and learning from, one of the greatest leaders and humanitarians the world has ever known. To the rest of the world, Nelson Mandela was a giant: an anti-apartheid revolutionary, a world-renowned humanitarian, and South Africa's first black president. To Ndaba Mandela, he was simply "Granddad." In Going to the Mountain, Ndaba tells how he came to live with Mandela shortly after he turned eleven--having met each other only once, years before, when Mandela was imprisoned at Victor Verster Prison--and how the two of them slowly, cautiously built a relationship that would affect both their lives in extraordinary ways. It wasn't an easy transition. Mandela had high expectations for those around him, especially his family, and Ndaba chafed at the strict rules and exacting guidelines in his grandfather's home. But at the same time--through overheard calls from foreign dignitaries as well as the Xhosa folk wisdom that his grandfather shared with him at every opportunity--Ndaba was learning how to be a man. On a scale both personal and epic, Ndaba's extraordinary journey mirrors that of South Africa's coming of age--from the segregated Soweto ghettos into which he was born to the privileged life in which he grew up and the turbulent yet exciting times in which he carries on his grandfather's legacy. Going to the Mountain is, in the end, a story about unlocking the power within each of us. It's a cautionary tale about how a child's life can go one way or the other, depending upon the intervention of a caring soul--and about the awesome power of love to serve as a catalyst for change.

Liberating the Law Surty Patel 2021-10-26 Our democratic constitutional order was won through the contribution and sacrifices of many brave men and women. Ismail Mahomed, the first Chief Justice of democratic South Africa, was one such individual of distinction. He was a formidable jurist and a great humanist. Ismail Mahomed was also a brilliant, incisive, visionary, passionate and devoted legal activist. He was immersed in the spirit of the great Roman-Dutch law philosophers like Johannes Voet and Hugo de Groot, as well as the rich spiritual tradition of the East. He found inspiration in many quarters, drawing variously on the works of Aristotle, Justinian, Rabindranath Tagore and Allama Iqbal. The great legacy he leaves behind in the form of judgments, speeches and academic papers strongly affirms his steadfast belief that the administration of the law should flow from ubuntu and be guided by an abiding respect for the humanity of others. On more than one occasion he spoke movingly about how our love for each other was the basis for a new society. He held firm to the notion that morality, undergirded by principled commitment to the equality of all, must forever remain the bedrock of justice. During apartheid, he was among a handful of principled lawyers who challenged the immoral basis of statutes flowing from an unrepresentative Parliament. After being called to the Bar he had a singular preoccupation with challenging unjust laws, many of which affected him personally.

property specialist. His revolutionary methods sent shockwaves through the traditional investor communities. Some say he is crazy and others say he is the property prophet everyone has been waiting for. Whatever the case, no-one remains dispassionate about him – he is surely the man who has created more millionaires than anyone or any institution before him. Coert was a full-time property investor, and over the years he has developed a foolproof method that allows the ordinary man to invest in residential property. Thousands of people stream to his Wealth Mastery seminars, where they learn how to invest in property without any cash. His methods are the only hope for millions of people in South Africa left in the lurch by the traditional retirement products sold to them by the giant life insurance companies. In this book you will become acquainted with some of Coert's students, his methods and his philosophies. Any person who says they are serious about wealth creation or providing for their retirement, but does not know Coert's methods, cannot truly be serious. Coert's method is known as the Wealth Mastery System. the Wealth Mastery System has changed the face of property in South Africa. Tourism Distribution Berendien Lubbe 2000 Travel distribution has become one of the most talked-about subjects in the tourism industry since technological advances have opened new channels and opportunities for suppliers of tourism, travel intermediaries and consumers. While technological advances have brought about dramatic changes, so too has the consolidation of organisations, both in the airline and travel industries. These changes are transforming the industry and while travel agents will remain key players in distribution, their fundamental role will probably change from supplier-biased intermediaries to consumer-biased consultants.
