Directed by Allen Smithee Jeremy Braddock 2001 Allen Smithee specializes in the mediocre. He is versatile. He is prolific. And he doesn't exist. From 1969 until 1999, Allen Smithee was the pseudonym adopted by Hollywood directors when they wished not to be associated with films ostensibly of their making . Encompassing over fifty films of various stripes -- B movies, sequels, music videos, made-for-TV movies -- Smithee's three decades of work affords the authors of this volume a unique opportunity to reassess the claims of auteurism, both in its traditional guise and in the more commodified form it currently assumes. Sometimes treating Smithee as an auteur in much the same way critics and scholars have treated directors as diverse as Douglas Sirk, Abbas Kiarostami, and Quentin Tarantino, the contributors reclaim new possibilities for auteurist filmmaking and film studies, even as they show what an empty display it has recently become. In accounting for this change, the essays in this volume employ innovative theories of authorship to recapture the subversive effect that auteurism once enjoyed. Thus the Smithee name becomes part of a larger discussion of the economics and history of pseudonyms in filmmaking -- notably in the blacklist of the 1950s -- as well as an opportunity to employ Jacques Derrida's theory of the signature to recover obscured economic and historic contexts within Smithee's films. Unique in its focus, innovative in its approach, Directed by Allen Smithee argues that it is precisely through throwaway films such as Smithee's that recent Hollywood cinema can best be studied.

PolyluxMarx Valeria Bruschi 2014-03-01 The Great Recession, triggered by the collapse of financial markets in 2008, struck with such ferocity that millions of people began to question the rationality of our capitalist economic system.

And as scholars, journalists, and activists tried to comprehend what was happening, they were forced to look deeply into the nature of capitalism—inevitably leading them to the work of Karl Marx. Now, Marx is enjoying a worldwide rediscovery and resurrection, and his masterwork, Capital, has found its way back into college classrooms, labor unions, the Occupy movement, study groups, and into the hands of disillusioned young people. Reading Capital can be a daunting endeavor and most readers need guidance when tackling this complex work. PolyLuxMarx provides such guidance. Developed by scholars and political activists associated with the Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung (Foundation), one of the leading political education institutions in Germany, this book has been field tested with groups studying Marx's masterpiece over several years. It consists of a large set of PowerPoint presentations, combined with detailed annotations and suggestions for ways to discuss the material. Each page illustrates a central argument from Capital, provides helpful introductory texts, and supplies notes on methodology and teaching tips. PolyLuxMarx is an ingeniously devised illustrated workbook that will help readers grasp the key arguments of Capital. It will prove invaluable to the curious reader of all ages, as well as to students, teachers, workers, activists, and study groups.

State, Community and Neighbourhood in Princely North India, c. 1900-1950 I.

Copland 2005-04-26 Ian Copland's aim in this book is to explain why, during the colonial period, the erstwhile Indian 'princely' states experienced per capita significantly less Muslim-Sikh and Muslim-Hindu communal violence than the provinces of British India, and how the enviable situation of the states in this respect became eroded over time. His answers to these questions shed new light on the growth of popular organisations in princely India, on relations between the Hindu and Sikh princes and the communal parties in British India, and on governance as a factor in communal riot production and prevention.

No God in Sight Altaf Tyrewala 2011-03-18 Fast – paced and innovative, No God in Sight captures the seething multiplicity of Bombay through the first – person accounts of an abortionist, a convert, a pregnant refugee, a gangster in hiding, a butcher, and an apathetic CEO, among others. As the reader is hurtled from monologue to short story to anecdote, disparate lives collide in tantalizing ways. A family flees religious persecution in their village to take refuge in an urban slum; women walk the tightrope of free will and dormant violence; a father and son grant each other the relief of estrangement; and young men and women struggle to comprehend the consequences of sexual attraction. Insightful, ironic, and scathingly honest, No God in Sight is a brilliant debut by a talented young writer.

Segeln in der Schule! Planung, Durchführung und Evaluation einer außerunterrichtlichen Segel-AG Matthias Aumann 2013-07-01 Die vorliegende Arbeit ist dem außerunterrichtlichen Engagement zuzuordnen und nachfolgender gesellschaftlicher Problematik gewidmet. Durch den aktuellen gesellschaftlichen Wandel kommt es zu verstärkter Ausgrenzung und Isolation, besonders von sozial Schwächeren. Des Weiteren lösen sich traditionelle soziale Strukturen auf, was zu einem Mangel an sozialen Interaktionen, Resignation und Vereinsamung führt. Der aktuelle Prozess der Individualisierung verstärkt zudem die negativen Auswirkungen auf das soziale Miteinander. Soziale Kompetenz gehört heutzutage zu den wichtigsten Kompetenzen im Berufsleben und bildet eine der bedeutenden Grundlagen der Persönlichkeitsentwicklung und damit für das Teilhaben an der Gesellschaft. Nach Klippert vermissen Betriebe die Vermittlung einzelner Schlüsselqualifikationen wie Selbstständigkeit, Problemlösungsfähigkeit und soziale Kompetenz, u.a. Teamkompetenz. Daher wird es mehr denn je erforderlich, dass soziale Kompetenz durch die Institution Schule mit ihrem Doppelauftrag Bildung und Erziehung wieder erlernt werden muss. ‚Das Schiff hinterlässt keine Spuren in der See, aber unendlich vielen in deinem Herzen.‘ (Joseph Conrad, o.J.) Mit der erfolgreichen Installation und Durchführung einer Segel-AG an der Schule kann außerunterrichtlich auf die soziale Kompetenz der Schüler positiv Einfluss genommen werden. Segelsport ist ein Natursport, der erlebnispädagogisch vermittelt werden kann.
