The Civil War Julius Caesar 2004-02-05 A military leader of legendary genius, Caesar was also a great writer, recording the events of his life with incomparable immediacy and power. The Civil War is a tense and gripping depiction of his struggle with Pompey over the leadership of Republican Rome - a conflict that spanned the entire Roman world, from Gaul and Spain to Asia and Africa. Where Caesar's own account leaves off in 48 BC, his lieutenants take up the history, describing the vital battles of Munda, Spain and Thapsus, and the installation of Cleopatra, later Caesar's mistress, as Queen of Egypt. Together these narratives paint a full picture of the events that brought Caesar supreme power - and paved the way for his assassination only months later.

Wolfhilde's Hitler Youth Diary 1939-1946 Wolfhilde von König 2013-01-15 Wolfhilde's Hitler Youth Diary is the chronicle of a girl growing up in Munich during the most volatile time in world history. WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID ABOUT THE DIARY For an in depth review of The Diary, please visit The Herald Palladium. Initially, the material upset me emotionally in an unexpected way. It took me some time to re-read the diary entries one by one to gain a calmer perspective. Of course, for 60 years or longer I have been aware of the strategies and tactics, the techniques and methods applied and utilized by the Nazi regime to contaminate and poison the minds and souls of people—beginning with children from the age of 10—with its fierce, all-embracing ideology. Never, before reading Wolfhilde's Hitler Youth Diary, have I been confronted with such massive, monstrous evidence as to what the Nazi regime was doing to us—and how they did it. What is presented here in the diary of a girl from 13 through 21 years of age is a textbook example—concrete evidence—of how they did it. Wolfgang Schleich, 1928- Journalist. Retired since 1990 from Radio Free Europe, where he worked for almost 35 years as a reporter, editor, traveling correspondent and head of the network's Berlin Bureau.

Behaviour Behind Bones Sharyn Jones O'Day 2003-12-01 This book is the first in a series of volumes which form the published proceedings of the 9th meeting of the International Council of Archaeozoology (ICAZ), held in Durham in 2002. The 35 papers present a series of case studies from around the world. They stretch beyond the standard zooarchaeological topics of economy and ecology, and consider how zooarchaeological research can contribute to our understanding of human behaviour and social systems. The volume is divided into two parts. Part 1, Beyond Calories, focuses on the zooarchaeology of ritual and religion. Contributors discuss ways to approach questions of ritual and religion through the faunal record, and consider how material culture depicting and/or associated with animals can provide clues about ideology, religious practices and the role of animals within spiritual systems. Part 2, Equations for Inequality, looks at questions of identity, status and other forms of social differentiation in former human societies. Contributors discuss how differences in food consumption, nutrition, and food procurement strategies can be related to various forms of social differentiation among individuals and groups.

Entautomatisierung Norbert Otto Eke 2014 In den bisherigen Bänden der Schriftenreihe »Automatismen« widmeten sich Forscher aus den Kulturwissenschaften, der Medienwissenschaft, Psychologie, Soziologie und der Informatik den Erscheinungsformen von Automatismen. Der neueste Band nähert sich ihnen aus der entgegengesetzten Perspektive der Entautomatisierung und ihrer Bedeutung für die Veränderung etablierter Strukturen. Die Beiträge fragen u.a., ob und inwiefern Entautomatisierung mit der strukturbildenden Funktion von Automatismen zusammenhängt, ob und welche geregelte Rolle Zäsuren und Singularitäten in beider Beziehung spielen oder ob sich Momente der Entautomatisierung subjektiv verorten lassen. Mit Beiträgen von Amy Alexander, Christopher Balme, Annette Brauerhoch, Martin Doll, Norbert Otto Eke, Lioba Foit, Ute Holl, Timo Kaerlein, Carmin Karasic, Laura Marks, Michaela Ott, Drehli Robnik, Chris Tedjasukmana, Renate Wieser und Anke Zechner.
