Did You Ever Wonder Will C. van den Hoonaard 2017-08-30 Did You Ever Wonder... A Story About the BAb as Child is a children's story about the early life of the BAb. ♦ The BAb (1819-1850) is the Forerunner of one of the world's fastest growing religions today, the BahA'I Faith. Using carefully gathered information about the BAb, author Will C. van den Hoonaard has created a unique story that will interest children between the ages of 6 and 10. Artist Gloria Savoie, one of Eastern Canada's better known artists, has specially created unique drawings to accompany the story. Will C. van den Hoonaard is Professor Emeritus at the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. He has written a number of books on a large variety of topics. One of his latest books, Map Worlds: A History of Women in Cartography was the subject of an interview in National Geographic. Born in the Netherlands, he has also lived, studied or worked in France, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Iceland. He was Alternate Representative of the BahA'I International Community at the United Nations in New York. Gloria Savoie lives in Miramichi City. She graduated om the New Brunswick Community College-Miramichi Art Fundamentals Program, and is recipient of Arts New Brunswick Creation Awards and Annual Juried Art Prizes. Her work is meant to express the reverence she feels for humankind, for creation, and for nature. Children and animals are her most frequent subjects in art. Her artwork is meant to celebrate humankind's nobility. She is also interested in creating artwork that tells the story of Miramichi.

The Julian Chapter: A Wonder Story R. J. Palacio 2014-05-13 WONDER IS NOW A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE STARRING JULIA ROBERTS AND JACOB TREMBLAY! Over 6 million people have read the #1 New York Times bestseller Wonder—the book that inspired the Choose Kind movement—and have fallen in love with Auggie Pullman, an ordinary boy with an extraordinary face. From the very first day Auggie and Julian met in the pages of R. J. Palacio's life-changing book Wonder, it was clear they were never going to be friends, with Julian treating Auggie like he had the plague. And while Wonder told Auggie's story through six different viewpoints, Julian's perspective was never shared. Readers could only guess what he was thinking. Until now. The Julian Chapter will finally reveal the bully's side of the story. Why is Julian so unkind to Auggie? And does he have a chance for redemption?

Alone Megan E. Freeman 2021-01-12 Perfect for fans of Hatchet and the I Survived series, this harrowing middle grade debut novel-in-verse from a Pushcart Prize-nominated poet tells the story of a young girl who wakes up one day to find herself utterly alone in her small Colorado town. When twelve-year-old Maddie hatches a scheme for a secret sleepover with her two best friends, she ends up waking up to a nightmare. She's alone—left behind in a town that has been mysteriously evacuated and abandoned. With no one to rely on, no power, and no working phone lines or internet access, Maddie slowly learns to survive on her own. Her only companions are a Rottweiler named George and all the books she can read. After a rough start, Maddie learns to trust her own ingenuity and invents clever ways to survive in a place that has been deserted and forgotten. As months pass, she escapes natural disasters, looters, and wild animals. But Maddie's most formidable enemy is the crushing loneliness she faces every day. Can Maddie's stubborn will to survive carry her through the most frightening experience of her life?

Tut: The Story of My Immortal Life P. J. Hoover 2014-09-16 Tut: The Story of My Immortal Life is a funny, fast-paced novel for young readers by P.J. Hoover which chronicles the mischievous adventures of King Tut, now an immortal eighth-grader living in Washington, D.C.. You'd think it would be great being an Egyptian demigod, but if King Tut has to sit through eighth grade one more time, he'll mummify himself. Granted the gift of immortality by the gods—or is it a curse?—Tut has been stuck in middle school for ages. Even worse, evil General Horemheb, the man who killed Tut's father and whom Tut imprisoned in a tomb for three thousand years, is out and after him. The general is in league with the Cult of Set, a bunch of guys who worship one of the scariest gods of the Egyptian pantheon—Set, the god of Chaos. The General and the Cult of Set have plans for Tut... and if Tut doesn't find a way to keep out of their clutches, he'll never make it to the afterworld alive. The Cat Came Back (The 9 Lives Cozy Mystery Series, Book 1) Louise Clark 2016-06-09 "If you are looking for a perplexing plot, with a surprising end and a spicy thread of humor and romance, this is it!" ~Daniel Kelty, Verified Reviewer Stormy the Cat, rescued by journalist Quinn Armstrong, is not what he seems. Young mother Christy Jamieson just learned her husband, Frank, embezzled his trust fund, sold their Vancouver mansion, and ran off with a socialite. Worse, Frank's trustees are telling Christy to let them handle it. But they aren't doing anything, and Frank's enemies are coming after her and her daughter. Desperate to find Frank and fend off his enemies, Christy asks Quinn for help. His price: the dirt on Frank. But the closer Christy and Quinn get to the dangerous truth, the more convinced they become that only the one who knows where Frank is at, is Stormy the Cat. Publisher Note: The 9 Lives Cozy Mysteries, while containing some mild profanity, will be enjoyed by mature readers of cozy mysteries. Cat lovers and those fond of all things feline, as well as readers of Amanda Lee, Denise Grover Swank, Rita Mae Brown's Sneaky Pie Brown Mysteries and Shirley Rousseau Murphy's Joe Grey Mysteries will not want to miss this series. The 9 Lives Cozy Mysteries The Cat Came Back The Cat's Paw Cat Got Your Tongue Let Sleeping Cats Lie Cat Among the Fishes Cat in the Limelight Fleece the Cat About The Author: Louise Clark has been the adopted mom of a number of cats with big personalities. The feline who inspired Stormy, the cat in the 9 Lives books, dominated her household for twenty loving years. During that time, he created a family pecking order that left Louise on top and her youngest child on the bottom (just below the guinea pig), regularly tried to eat all his sister's food (he was a very large cat), and learned the joys of travel through a cross continent road trip. The 9 Lives Cozy Mystery Series—as well as the single title mystery, A Recipe For Trouble, are all set in her hometown of Vancouver, British Columbia.

Did You Ever Wonder Jeff Nystrom 2014-02-13 Warning: If you've ever owned a dog, you should enjoy the following book. This book contains 321 cartoons which hopefully will make you smile, chuckle, and perhaps wet yourself (assuming you are older like me!) In my first book "Did You Ever Wonder - Thinking Outside My Box," my cartoons and their topics were fairly random - sort of like "stream of consciousness" writing. This book starts out in a somewhat similar fashion but does eventually develop a couple of story lines. In the early part, you'll be introduced to a number of characters but the bulk of the book will focus on Spike, Chico, and Grandpaw. Initially I considered splitting this material into two separate books but didn't think there was enough "meat" for both books to stand or squat separately. The last thing I wanted to do with a dog story is not have enough "meat" in it. If I didn't, I'd have all the "doggie" lovers out there howling for my blood not to mention begging for more treats! Regardless, these cartoons were written with the intent of brightening your day! So take off your game face, relax, and let the sunlight enter! JAN PS - Dogs like young children enjoy having stories read to them too! Please don't make them beg!

Transit Shawn Johnson 2014-08-01 Fifteen years ago, Shawn Johnson was a suicidal drug abuser working in Hollywood. He wondered if God could ever be a part of his broken life. To his surprise, finding God was not that difficult. But, growing closer to Him was another story. Three weeks after giving his life to God, he relapsed, and almost over-dosed. He wanted to be closer to God, but he just had no idea how to get there. As a result, his faith eventually floundered. He didn't know what steps he should be taking to move closer to God. Embracing spiritual disciplines such as prayer, Bible study, healthy relationships, sharing his testimony, serving, and giving was a foreign concept to him; and therefore, out of reach. Shawn's hope is that Transit can keep people from losing faith in God today, the way he did then. Today, Shawn is the lead pastor of Red Rocks Church in Golden, Colorado, one of the fastest growing churches in the country according to Leadership Network. At Red Rocks, he regularly encounters people who (like him) have had mountaintop experiences with God, but then crashed and burned because they had no idea how to move closer to Him. Time and time again, he has seen that his post-conversion experience is not an anomaly. Shawn remembers what it was like to feel dazed and confused after a dramatic life transformation. He also knows how easy it is for long-time believers to fall into spiritual ruts where complacency, disillusionment, and frustration are the norm. In Transit, Shawn shares his personal journey in growing closer to God, uncovering disciplines that were critical to that journey, and invites each of us to ignite (or re-ignite) an authentic relationship with God, one that actually changes our lives today.

My Study Bubba 2015-07-25 The Bible teaches us to seek God diligently. The Bible also teaches that we reap what we sow; in other words, what we work for with effort, we will justly receive. Time is of great essence. It takes time to truly understand the mysteries of life. As a mature adult, time well spent is our reward in life. We once were blind, but now we see. When we are very young, we do not see the reality of life. It takes time. The author, Charles Traina, has spent years and countless hours studying the scriptures. You may read what he has found in just a few hours, but understanding still takes time. Will you take the time before your time runs out? Once you close your eyes in your eternal slumber, your time is of no use. Read My Study; it then will become your study. It may encourage you to study scripture, and your own time will be well spent. Praise be to God.

Middleton Corner Wallace D. Campbell 2007-04-30 Middleton Corner is a non-descript crossroads on Ohio U.S. 68 south of Xenia and north of Wilmington. Even the crossroads is a bit unorthodox because Spring Valley Paintersville Road intersects U.S. 68 and then jogs a short distance on U.S. 68 before continuing its meandering path between Spring Valley and Paintersville. I am not sure why there is a highway sign posted or why it is listed on the Ohio map, but it is. At first glance it would appear that there is nothing special about Middleton Corner. There are a thousand such little hamlets throughout the United States. This little book is a salute to Middleton Corner and all the other small settlements out there. The point is that there is beauty and excitement everywhere. Sometimes you just have to slow down and take the time to see the beauty and the adventure that surrounds us all the time. It is a lot like the Field of Dreams. You build it and they will come. In the case of Middleton Corner all you have to do is look for the excitement, the grandeur, and the beauty in the simple things and it will be revealed to you. The author, through a series of one-page vignettes and photos has captured the essence of seeing God in all of creation, even at a place like Middleton Corner.

Developing More Curious Minds John Barell 2003 Explains questioning strategies and teaching behaviors designed to encourage students to think, investigate, and draw their own conclusions.

Ever Wonder Why? Douglas B. Smith 2013-04-24 "Why?" is the first question we learn to ask as children and the one our parents have the hardest time answering. This is because "Why?" is the most difficult question to research. Why is the color blue used for boys? Why do worms come out onto sidewalks after a rain? Why do chefs wear tall hats? Everyone knows that Donuts have holes . . . We clink glasses before saying a toast . . . Golfers yell "fore!" before teeing off . . . We nod our heads yes and shake our heads no But how many of us know why? You'll learn the answers and a whole lot more in this fun and fact-filled almanac. And all you have to do is ask WHY?!

The Lawn Monster Lynda Stevens 2012-05-23 This is a story about two brothers who solve the mystery of the disappearance of their toys. In the process, they uncover the truth about an old legend of a nighttime thief, The Lawn Monster. They learn that they are more brave and resourceful than they ever thought they would be. They face issues of bullying, both by the Monster and an older classmate. They are strengthened by imaginering a solution to their problems. They learn that young minds can find age appropriate solutions to large problems. Equally important, they learn that they can rely on their loyalty to each other.

marriage becomes a struggle. Everyone's marriage morphs into something they didn't intend it to be. At some point you need something sturdier than romance. You need something deeper than shared interests and mutual attraction. You need changed expectations, you need radical commitments, and, most importantly, you need grace.

Lies Have Been Told Rod Beacham 2006-02-20 On November 5th 1991, Robert Maxwell, who had used hundreds of millions of pounds from his companies and their pension funds to prop up his ailing empire, disappeared overboard from his yacht in the Canary Islands. His body was later found floating in the ocean. The official verdict was accidental drowning, but others suggested he had committed suicide or been murdered by secret agents or Russian mafia hit men. Was Robert Maxwell a monster or the victim of racism and snobbery? In the outstanding one-man production, Lies Have Been Told: An Evening With Robert Maxwell, Maxwell tries to persuade you of his point of view... if you can believe a word he says! Lies Have Been Told had a successful run at the New End Theatre in 2005 and transferred to the Trafalgar Studios in January 2006.

One-On-One: One Hundred Days with Jesus Barb Peil 2021-08-22 Christmas and Easter are two of the most meaningful days of the year. They remind us and help us celebrate the birth and the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. But what about all the days in between? How can you make those days special, too? In One-on-One: 100 Days with Jesus, author Barb Peil walks you through the significant events and people from Jesus' time on earth. From one hundred snapshots from Jesus' life, you will see His story from the perspective of those He touched, helping you better imagine what really happened in those true and familiar stories you've read in the Bible. Begin at the start of the Christmas season and every day through the month of December, meet people from Jesus' backstory. Next, walk with Him into the new year and discover Him in His ministry years. And finally, as Easter approaches, come in from the fringes of the crowd and follow Him on the way to the cross. Filled with tidbits of history, Jewish culture, and fascinating biographies, One-on-One: 100 Days with Jesus answers the question: What would it be like to walk and talk with Jesus, one-on-one?

On God's Path: The Unfolding Story of Humanity S. Craig George 2010-06-25 On God's Path: The Unfolding Story of Humanity is an optimistic, realistic and pious view of humanity's role on the stage of creation. In this generation a variety of competing stories have been told to explain where we came from and where we are going, each story told with sincere conviction. These stories seem to turn on two centers: science and religion and they are often placed in opposition. The theme of this book is that the truths of science and religion need not be viewed as mutually exclusive, but complementary in the big picture. With significant advances in both science and theology in the recent past we have much more information to attempt to incorporate in humanity's story than ever before. More dots to connect give us a better chance of bringing into focus a much larger and more inclusive picture of where we came from and where we may be going. The story of humanity, as presented in this book, begins with the first moment of the cosmos and traces the rise of the human physically, socially and morally. It engages the reader to consider humanity's trajectory. With a Christian perspective respectful of all faiths, the author weaves the human religious impulse and the Spirit of Christ together brightly into the tapestry of Creation. Written with the lay reader in mind, On God's Path presents a wide spectrum of mainstream contemporary scientific and theological ideas in surprisingly straightforward and creative ways. Part of the author's objective in this book is to challenge readers to expand their thinking about God and science and to reconsider their own roles in advancing the human story.

Leah Jacqueline Marshall 2007-05 Leah the insignificant one! Hated, unloved and rejected. However, appointed and anointed along with Rachel to build the House of Israel. Ruth 4:11. "The Lord looked upon Leah's afflictions and opened up her womb." Genesis 29:31. Woman of God, get up and be counted! Take your rightful place in God! "And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses." "The Lord make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the House of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem." Ruth 4:11. What is the Lord birthing in you? Don't you dare abort the vision! Leah... This is my story. What's yours? "Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed." James 5:16 NKJV. This book encourages individuals to celebrate ones true identity. "In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you." "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." 2 Corinthians 6:2 NKJV. Jacqueline Marshall is a mother, author, broadcaster, visionary and humanitarian. Jacqueline received a prophetic word from God concerning women. This message encourages individuals, who have survived emotional and physical abuse. Her inspiration for this book came from the Biblical story of Leah. Jacqueline Marshall is a true believer! Jacqueline truly believes in the healing and restoring power of the Holy Ghost. "He who has received His testimony has certified that God is true." "For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure." John 3:33-34 NKJV.

Did You Ever Wonder Will Van Den Hoonaard 2017-08-30 Written for children (6 to 10), a story about the Bab as a Child, the Forerunner of a fast growing religion. Artist Gloria Savoie, a well-known artist in Eastern Canada, created unique drawings for the story. David Adams Richards, one of Canada's most noted authors says that "This joyful book is wonderfully written and brilliantly illustrated..."

Angel at My Door Robert Strand 2004-07-30 The Bible is filled with accounts of angels, and Billy Graham states that there are references to angelic encounters than stories of demons. This title's heartwarming stories point readers to the God who loves them so much that He sends His messengers at critical times to protect, defend, and encourage.

Then Came a Hush Ruth Waring Two women. Two journeys. One God. Evelyn Sherwood has reached a crossroad: she can no longer deny God's existence by ignoring Him. Too much has happened. But now what? Will she acknowledge a faith that comes only from God and accept Christ as the Messiah for the Nation of Israel? Will her past continue to haunt her, or can she trust the Christ of the New Testament with her future? Guilt, grief, and anger threaten the right decision as God continues to bring turmoil into her life in His patient pursuit of one of His chosen people. Abby Waters has loved and worshipped God since childhood. Nothing has weakened or challenged her faith, not even nine years at the hand of an abusive husband. She always believed God would intervene, would protect her, would change her husband. But when the unthinkable happens, she wishes her husband dead and she runs, not just from her husband, but from God. Faith, trust, hope and justice entwine these two women in a friendship that bridges the gap between grandmother and a young woman, both running, both needing God. Amidst their fears, will they hear God's gentle whisper, will they feel His quiet hush? Can they trust a God they cannot see? Then Came a Hush begs the reader to ask the question, Do I believe in the God of the Old Testament, would I know His voice, and how would I respond to the Christ of the New Testament if He asked, 'Who do you say I am?'

Love You Forever Robert N. Munsch 1986 As her son grows up from little boy to adult man, a mother secretly rocks him each night as he sleeps.
