tumbling blocks Earlene Fowler 2008-05-06 In the new novel in the “breezy [and] humorous” (Chicago Sun-Times) series, Benni Harper is carrying a bundle of holiday stress—as she unwraps the secrets of an elite and possibly murderous society... San Celina’s most exclusive society suddenly has an opening and Benni Harper has been tapped—not to join, but to investigate. The upper crust, female-only “49 Club” is restricted to exactly that many members, and one must die before another joins. When the latest socialite de-pledges in her sleep, Benni’s boss wants the mystery solved—and naturally, it’s landed on Benni’s to-do list. Reluctant at first, she profiles a few women whose social ambitions give them an obvious motive. But with a famously reclusive artist about to put Benni’s quilting museum on the map—and her daunting mother-in-law soon to arrive—Benni’s holiday is already hectic. Nevertheless, she’ll need to crack this exclusive circle of suspects, before one more gourmet goose gets cooked. “Benni delves into the secrets of the town’s elite with her usual flair, unraveling a plot that is as dangerous as the bulls on her father’s ranch and as cozy as the quilts she reveres.”—Publishers Weekly “The rich cast of secondary characters [and] plenty of humor...enrich this thirteenth in the long-running series.”—Booklist

Fractured Fellowships William J. Allen 2010-06-02 How did the church lose its first love? A shocking indictment! How could a Church devoted to sharing Christ be charged with neglecting her first love Jesus Christ? Author William Allen traces the problem back 1700 years, to a time when the Church began to fall in love with itself, and perverted the very nature of the true Church. After tracing this spiraling devolution, the author shows us a way back, by thinking of Church as organism, rather than as institution. For all this time, reform efforts have resulted only in "re-arranging the deck chairs on the Titanic." It is time to re-think and go back to the "first things," with Christ central.
