Sprachwissenschaft und Fremdsprachenunterricht Dirk Siepman 2014-10-01 Ziel des vorliegenden Bandes ist es, Interdependenzen zwischen Sprachwissenschaft und Fremdsprachendidaktik aufzuzeigen. Besondere Berücksichtigung finden dabei Fragen des Spracherwerbs sowie der Entwicklung, Förderung und Evaluation von Sprachkompetenzen. Die im Rahmen des 2. Osnabrücker Symposiums (2013) entstandenen Beiträge diskutieren die Verbindungen zwischen beiden Disziplinen unter vier Aspekten: Wie lassen sich sprachwissenschaftliche Erkenntnisse zum Spracherwerb für die Konzeption von Fremdsprachenunterricht nutzbar machen? Welche vermittelnden Transformationen von Forschungsergebnissen der Sprachwissenschaft in didaktische Modelle und Konzepte zur gezielten Entwicklung und Förderung von Sprachkompetenzen bieten sich an? Welche spezifischen Eigenheiten der Fremdsprache sollten im Fokus vermittelnder Transformation stehen? Und schließlich: Wie ist es um ausgewählte Sprachkompetenzen schulischer Fremdsprachenlerner bestellt?

The Silent Heroes Hans Moederzoon Van Kuilenburg 2013-05 Author Hans Moederzoon van Kuilenburg was a 10-year-old girl living in Amsterdam when German soldiers invaded Holland in the spring of 1940. The Dutch had intended to stay neutral at the outbreak of the war, as their military was no match for the Nazi hordes. Within five days, Holland had fallen and the German occupation was underway. The five ensuing years were among the darkest chapters in Dutch history, culminating in the hunger winter of 1944, during which 30,000 Dutch citizens died of hunger and cold. Even today, people like the author, who grew up during that time, are more prone to heart attacks as a result of the physical stress of those years. But despite having capitulated so quickly in the face of the overwhelming might of the German war machine, there were many heroes in Holland during the occupation; people like the author's father, a civilian supervisor of marine supplies, who robbed the Germans blind and gave stolen food and clothing to Dutch people in need. Eventually his activities attracted the attention of the German authorities and he was imprisoned. Thankfully Hans' mother was able to stage a dramatic escape with the help of the family doctor. The Silent Heroes is a true story of heroism, survival and resistance during a time of fear, despair, and hardship. Hans Moederzoon van Kuilenburg was born in Amsterdam and immigrated to the U.S. in 1959. She had a distinguished career as a medical assistant before retiring. In addition to writing, she also does photography and sometimes exhibits her work. The Silent Heroes is her first book. Publisher's website: <http://sbpra.com/HansMoederzoonVanKuilenbur>
