Francisco Jerónimo de León Nuria Verdet Martínez 2014-10-06 La trayectoria vital de Francisco Jerónimo de León estuvo marcada por su formación jurídica y su vocación de servicio a la corona. Desde estas coordenadas el letrado protagonizó un extenso 'cursus honorum' que culminó con su promoción a la Real Audiencia y al Consejo Supremo de Aragón. Como resultado de su experiencia en la judicatura de la más alta instancia compuso una vastísima obra de jurisprudencia doctrinal -Decisiones Sacrae Regiae Audientiae Valentinae-, publicada en tres volúmenes. La relevancia alcanzada por el magistrado no ha impedido que su biografía haya permanecido prácticamente inédita hasta el momento. En esta monografía se ofrece una caracterización de su personalidad desde un doble enfoque: el entorno personal, familiar y social del jurista es perfilado en la primera parte del trabajo, mientras la segunda se consagra al estudio de su carrera profesional.

It is what it is National Gallery of Canada 2010 Featuring the most innovative Canadian artists working today, this visually stunning publication is an essential reference for students, teachers and collectors. Attesting to the National Gallery's commitment to collecting contemporary Canadian art, three essays and over fifty individual presentations provide a thorough overview of emerging, mid-career and senior artists from all regions, traditions and backgrounds. Josee Drouin-Brisebois details the unique ways contemporary Canadian artists tackle the state of the world with interdisciplinary modes of self-expression that explode traditional categories, materials and genres. Greg Hill asserts that Indigenous art in Canada has deep roots and that artists of First Nations, Metis and Inuit descent are heirs to an ancient history. He traces the ongoing emergence of indigenous art into the forums of the contemporary art milieu in Canada and internationally. Andrea Kunard tracks how photography continues to adroitly position itself on the cusp of the analogue and the digital, exploiting both technologies to create works that exist in both fact and fiction. Among the many artists featured are David Altmejd, Shuvani Ashoona, Mary Anne Barkhouse, Rebecca Belmore, Shary Boyle, Geoffrey Farmer, Adad Hannah, Wanda Koop, Tim Lee, Tim Pitsiulak, Yannick Pouliot, Steven Shearer, Jeff Wall, Chih-Chien Wang and Lawrence Paul Yuxweluptun.

Vigée Le Brun Joseph Baillio 2016-02-15 Elisabeth Louise Vigée Le Brun (1755–1842) was one of the finest eighteenth-century French painters and among the most important women artists of all time. Celebrated for her expressive portraits of French royalty and aristocracy, and especially of her patron Marie Antoinette, Vigée Le Brun exemplified success and resourcefulness in an age when women were rarely allowed either. Because of her close association with the queen Vigée Le Brun was forced to flee France during the French Revolution. For twelve years she traveled throughout Europe, painting noble sitters in the courts of Naples, Russia, Austria, and Prussia. She returned to France in 1802, under the reign of Emperor Napoleon I, where her creativity continued unabated. This handsome volume details Vigée Le Brun's story, portraying a talented artist who nimbly negotiated a shifting political and geographic landscape. Essays by international scholars address the ease with which this self-taught artist worked with monarchs, the nobility, court officials and luminaries of arts and letters, many of whom attended her famous salons. The position of women artists in Europe and at the Salons of the period is also explored, as are the challenges faced by Vigée Le Brun during her exile. The ninety paintings and pastels included in this volume attest to Vigée Le Brun's superb sense of color and expression. They include exquisite depictions of counts and countesses, princes and princesses alongside mothers and children, including the artist herself and her beloved daughter, Julie. A chronology of the life of Vigée Le Brun and a map of her travels accompany the text, elucidating the peregrinations of this remarkable, independent painter.

Vincenzo Scamozzi, Venetian Architect Vincenzo Scamozzi 2003 The first in a unique series of translations of Scamozzi's L'Idée de l'Architecture Universelle. The Northern Italian architect Vincenzo Scamozzi (1548-1616) designed a number of important palaces, villas and churches in and around Vincenza, Padua and Venice. In addition, he completed a comprehensive study of ancient classical architecture, including the possibilities for its application in a modern context. The first edition of this book was published in 1615. Scamozzi distinguishes himself from his predecessors by the scientific approach he follows in his treatise, in which his own designs appear as examples. The clear and detailed account of the historical and geographical background to the principles of classical architecture led to the book's wide popularity in Northern Europe throughout the seventeenth century. colour illustrations

Nicolas Poussin's Landscape Allegories Sheila McTighe 1996-03-29 Nicolas Poussin's Landscape Allegories offers new interpretations for several of the most beautiful and enigmatic paintings of the artist's late career. Sheila McTighe examines the landscapes within the social and intellectual context of seventeenth-century libertinage, a clandestine atheist movement, and argues that, despite their outward limpidity, Poussin's landscape allegories are deliberately obfuscatory, their meaning ensconced in a set of signs and symbols recognizable only to an intellectual milieu that was marginal in seventeenth-century cultural life.

Miliona (Dodo Press) Theophile Gautier 2009-03 Pierre Jules Theophile Gautier (1811-1872) est un poète, romancier, peintre et critique d'art français. Lecteur avide, il a cinq ans lorsqu'il commence à lire. Sa grande passion est Robinson Crusoé. En 1820, à l'âge de huit ans, il fait un bref séjour en tant que pensionnaire au lycée Louis-le-Grand. Tout en menant "toutes les grandes campagnes romantiques," il écrit un premier recueil de vers, dont son père finance la publication. Il travaille également pour le magazine de Charles Malo, La France Littéraire, et pour le quotidien d'Émile de Girardin, La Presse. Dans ce journal, Gautier se charge d'abord de la critique d'art. On évalue à plus de deux mille le nombre des feuilletons et articles qu'il aurait rédigés pour ce journal. Ainsi en 1838 paraît La Comédie de la Mort, un recueil de poèmes assez différent des précédents ou, sous l'influence de Shakespeare, Goethe et Dante, Gautier sculpte avec vigueur le spectre de la Mort. En 1839, Gautier cède à la tentation du théâtre qu'il admire depuis toujours et écrit Une Larme du Diable puis Le Tricorne Enchanté et Pierrot Posthume.

Confessions of a Literary Archaeologist Carlton Lake 1990 The adventurous tale of Carlton Lake's lifelong treasure hunt in building the collection of research materials on modern French literature and the arts at the Humanities Research Center of the University of Texas at Austin.

Tintoretto Tom Nichols 2015-10-01 Jacopo Tintoretto (1518–94) is an ambiguous figure in the history of art. His radically unorthodox paintings are not readily classifiable, and although he was a Venetian by birth, his standing as a member of the Venetian school is constantly contested. But he was also a formidable maverick, abandoning the humanist narratives and sensuous color palette typical of the great Venetian master, Titian, in favor of a renewed concentration on core Christian subjects painted in a rough and abbreviated chiaroscuro style. This generously illustrated book offers an extensive analysis of Tintoretto's greatest paintings, charting his life and work in the context of Venetian art and the culture of the Cinquecento. Tom Nichols shows that Tintoretto was an extraordinarily innovative artist who created a new manner of painting, which, for all of its originality and sophistication, was still able to appeal to the shared emotions of the widest possible audience. This compact, pocket edition features sixteen additional illustrations and a new afterword by the author, and it will continue to be one of the definitive treatments of this once grossly overlooked master.

Art and Ethnicity Canadian Museum of Civilization 1991 Artistic expression as a fundamental aspect of Ukrainian-Canadian ethnicity is explored in this publication. The essays provide an informative introduction to the subject and cover such topics as the history, folk arts and religious iconography of Ukrainians in Canada. The book is richly illustrated with an array of artworks and artifacts from the collections of the Canadian Museum of Civilization.
