CONSTRUCTION LIENS FOR THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST ALASKA IDAHO OREGON WASHINGTON

FEDERAL PUBLIC WORKS James H. Hopkins JD 2011-07-13 The material in this primer on liens for public and private construction projects in Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington along with Federal Projects has been compiled for the purpose of assisting businesses and individuals in protecting their lien rights. Many helpful suggestions are included. This manual is not intended to take the place of competent legal counsel, but merely to serve as a basic guide to those who care to refer to its content. Some statements are legally imprecise to provide practical assistance and to avoid being overly technical. Where there are ambiguities or several choices, the author has attempted to set out an approach which protects the reader and keeps the outline as simple as possible. This manual should not be considered a legal authority, and any questions arising out of its content should be referred to counsel.

Washington State Notary Public Guide Washington State Department 2019-04-06 The Department of Licensing has worked to keep the notary public application process as simple as possible. A prospective notary need only submit a complete application, proof of a $10,000 surety bond, and appropriate fees to the Department of Licensing in order to begin the process. Once an applicant has completed all application requirements and proven that he or she is eligible, the Department will have a new certificate of commission mailed out promptly. New in 2018, notaries public can also apply for an electronic records notary public endorsement, which allows the notary to perform notarial acts on electronic documents as well as paper documents. The application process is similar to the application process for the commission, and can be done at the same time or separately.
