Mercedes CLK and Slk R. M. Clarke 2001-02-01 Prompted by the success of the MX-5 the SLK was based on a shortened C-class platform designed to include the Vario retractable steel roof and shown as a concept car in 1994. Full production began two years later but the UK only got the flagship model with a 193bhp, 2.3-litre supercharged engine with automatic gearbox. It was not until 2000 that the 3.2 litre V6 engine mated to a six-speed manual gearbox. became available. With this came body styling changes. The CLK was also based on the C-class platform but came with four seats and looked very similar to the E-class. It quickly went from the 2.3 to the 3.2 engine. Then came a cabriolet version. Mercedes kept up the pressure by introducing the CLK430 coupT with a 4.3-litre V8. This is a book of contemporary road and comparison tests, technical data, travel, long-term impressions, new model introductions. Models covered include: - SLK 200, CLK 230, CLK 320, SLK 230, CLK 430, SLK 320, CLK 55 AMG.

VW Karmann Ghia Gold Portfolio 1955-1974 R.M. Clarke 2006-07-15 The Volkswagen Karmann Ghia represents one of those unique collaborations between three companies in two different countries: the Volkswagenwerke in Wolfsburg, Germany and Wilhelm Karmann in Osnabruck, Germany, and the Ghia coachworks in Turin, Italy. It also represents the efforts of four men who have all gone down in automobile history for their achievements: Heinrich Nordhoff at VW, Wilhelm Karmann at Karmann, Mario Boano and Luigi Segre at Ghia. From the moment the pretty coupe walked onto the world's stage it went straight into the motoring Hall of Fame. Interestingly, where most coupes of the time had some pretense towards being sporting, generally with a mildly hotted up engine, the Karmann Ghia was simply stock VW Beetle from the mechanical point of view. In other words, it was still a 72-75mph car, it just looked great doing it! And that is why owners loved it. By 1961 VW introduced the Karmann 1500 based on the Type 3 platform to supplement the original. It was nowhere near as successful and was withdrawn from production in 1969, long before its older and more famous sibling. There is a strong and enthusiastic following for the Volkswagen Karmann Ghia coupe all around the world, a movement that seems to grow each year.
