Negotiate Like a Local Jean-Pierre Coene 2017-10-23 An invaluable guide to anybody involved in international negotiations in business or any other field. Although supply chains and communications may have globalized, stubborn cultural differences between people remain. The authors have extensive experience and some illuminating anecdotes, but, importantly, they have filtered their experience through established research into cultural differences, and consequently, their guidance is reliable and transferable. Adapting to local styles of doing business is often the difference between success and failure - this book gives the reader a valuable advantage.- Professor David Arnold, London Business School (UK), China Europe International Business School (Shanghai, China)The book is eminently practical. It reads like a novel, using brief and clear summary of theory, well-chosen metaphors and a wealth of examples from real business life. Read it before establishing new contacts, and return to it when you wish to make sense of your experiences. I have no doubt that both you and your future business partners will benefit.- Professor Gert Jan Hofstede, Wageningen University

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, assessment Council of Europe 2020-05-05 The CEFR Companion volume broadens the scope of language education. It reflects academic and societal developments since the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and updates the 2001 version. It owes much to the contributions of members of the language teaching profession across Europe and beyond. This volume contains: ► an explanation of the key aspects of the CEFR for teaching and learning; ► a complete set of updated CEFR descriptors that replaces the 2001 set with: - modality-inclusive and gender-neutral descriptors; - added detail on listening and reading; - a new Pre-A1 level, plus enriched description at A1 and C levels; - a replacement scale for phonological competence; - new scales for mediation, online interaction and plurilingual/pluricultural competence; - new scales for sign language competence; ► a short report on the four-year development, validation and consultation processes. The CEFR Companion volume represents another step in a process of engagement with language education that has been pursued by the Council of Europe since 1971 and which seeks to: ► promote and support the learning and teaching of modern languages; ► enhance intercultural dialogue, and thus mutual understanding, social cohesion and democracy; ► protect linguistic and cultural diversity in Europe; and ► promote the right to quality education for all.

Négociation internationale Jean-Pierre Coene 2013 Quelle est la meilleure manière de vendre à l'international ? Comment appréhender une négociation avec un Allemand, un Anglais ou un Chinois ? Ce livre vous offre les outils pour mieux connaître vos prospects et vous adapter à leur culture, et réussir là où vos concurrents vont échouer. Le sujet n'a jamais été abordé de la sorte, il fallait l'écrire. Ce livre doit être lu par tout manager responsable des ventes à l'international. Sans langue de bois, l'auteur vulgarise ici des notions complexes. De manière ludique et intéressante, il prend le lecteur par la main pour l'initier à la méthode développée grâce au Professeur Geert Hofstede. Le manager expérimenté s'amusera à comparer les expériences de l'auteur avec les siennes. Comment ? Grâce au principe de la modélisation. Porté par ses 40 années d'expérience, Jean-Pierre Coene a rassemblé une série d'analyses : il élabore une typologie des profils culturels, il modélise l'entretien de vente, et il conclut sur la meilleure manière de vendre dans les différentes régions du monde. Cela vous aidera également à analyser vos performances et tenter de comprendre comment vous auriez pu mieux faire dans des situations que vous avez connues, pourquoi certains produits se vendent mieux dans certaines régions que d'autres, et pourquoi nous sommes naturellement plus efficaces dans certains pays que d'autres.

Terra 2008 Leslie Rainer 2011-06-14 Earthen architecture constitutes one of the most diverse forms of cultural heritage and one of the most challenging to preserve. It dates from all periods and is found on all continents but is particularly prevalent in Africa, where it has been a building tradition for centuries. Sites range from ancestral cities in Mali to the palaces of Abomey in Benin, from monuments and mosques in Iran and Buddhist temples on the Silk Road to Spanish missions in California. This volume's sixty-four papers address such themes as earthen architecture in Mali, the conservation of living sites, local knowledge systems and intangible aspects, seismic and other natural forces, the conservation and management of archaeological sites, research advances, and training.
