Earth Magic Dionne Brand 2006-02 A collection of twenty poems celebrates the sounds, smells, spirit, and culture of the Caribbean and its multiracial people through a tour of its markets, villages, and communities.

Daniel Finds a Poem Micha Archer 2016-02-16 Stunning collage art full of rich color, glorious details, and a sense of wonder—reminiscent of the work of Ezra Jack Keats—illustrate this delightful story celebrating the poetry found in the world around us. What is poetry? Is it glistening morning dew? Spider thinks so. Is it crisp leaves crunching? That's what Squirrel says. Could it be a cool pond, sun-warmed sand, or moonlight on the grass? Maybe poetry is all of these things, as it is something special for everyone—you just have to take the time to really look and listen. The magical thing is that poetry is in everyone, and Daniel is on his way to discovering a poem of his own after spending time with his animal friends. What is poetry? If you look and listen, it's all around you!

Our Thoughts Our Problems Our Inner Feelings Always Evolving Poems of Our Times Roberta Fluellen 2014-12-19 The selections of the poems contained herein were written over a period of many decades. These poems reflect the times that we have lived and will be living. Most of them are based on true feelings and events that have taken place during my life and yours in this society and other countries. I truly hope that you will enjoy them and I truly thank you for sharing these precious moments and poems with me. Also, please keep an open mind when reading them, and if you can think about some of the events that have taken place in our world, understand that there are always pros and cons to any given occurrence in our world. Remember that there is a destiny that connects all mankind. No one stands alone. Whatever vibes you send will be channeled in different directions into our universe. With due respect, I know and understand that we do not hold on to the same values and belief systems. Please keep an open mind. Open your hearts and spiritual beliefs and allow Mother Nature's wind to blow into a time with me. I believe that whatever you send into the lives and experiences of others will certainly, at some point or another, have an effect on us, whether we accept the outcome(s) or not; it is so written.

Favourite Poems of Banjo Paterson Andrew Barton Paterson 2020-01-30 The "Favourite Poems of Banjo Paterson" have always been, and still remain, firm favourites with most Australians. He was "a poet who captured characters, moments and events which are now part of our national consciousness...no one managed to tell stories which as much wit and humour as 'The Banjo'" This selection of poems includes old favourites such as "The Man from Snowy River", "Jim Carew", "Clancy of the Overflow" and many others well known to all Australians. But the essence of his collection is the vigour that the artist Rex Newell has brought to Paterson's poems. This outstanding series of paintings and watercolours truly reflect his sympathy and understanding of Paterson's subjects. >So here is an opportunity for all those who love the work of A. B. Paterson to renew their acquaintance with his poems in a stimulating, fresh and thoroughly appealing new volume.

Wild in the Streets Marilyn Singer 2019-09-17 This beautifully illustrated book pairs poetry with nonfiction, telling the fascinating stories of the animals who have found homes in our city landscapes across the world, from the pythons traveling Singapore's sewers to the monkeys living in India's temples. Humans may have built towns and cities, but we aren't the only ones who live in them. Given the smallest chance—a park, a garden, a window box; a basement, a subway tunnel, a bridge—wildlife manages to survive in the city. Among colorful illustrated pages buzzing with city life and animal activity, you'll discover the host of wild animals who live among humans: butterflies, bats, spiders, honeybees, coyotes, and more. Each animal's story is told through a short poem accompanied by an informational paragraph. Some poems are comical, some poignant, and all make the reader see the world in a different way. After a rousing exploration of animal life, find definitions of the various types of poetry forms used in the book: haiku, cinquain, sonnet, terza rima, villanelle, triolet, reverso, acrostic, and free verse. Look around—you may discover neighbors you didn't know you had!

Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane 2017-05-26 This practical, accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms, while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students. Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre: Chapter 3, Informational Books; Chapter 4, Fiction; Chapter 5, Biography, Autobiography, and Memoir; Chapter 6, Poetry; and Chapter 7, How-to and Hands-on Books. Each genre chapter consists of four parts: Part 1: Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills. Part 2: Offers hands-on instructional strategies and activities using literature, with activities for use in a variety of disciplines. Part 3: Presents individual author studies (three or four per chapter) with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors' books in content area courses. Part 4: Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre, organized by content area. The annotations provide information about the book, which can be used to prepare booktalks, and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area. Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area, including art, English/language arts, languages and culture, math and technology, music, PE/health, science, and social studies/history.
