Who Was Eleanor Roosevelt? Gare Thompson 2004-01-05 For a long time, the main role of First Ladies was to act as hostesses of the White House...until Eleanor Roosevelt. Born in 1884, Eleanor was not satisfied to just be a glorified hostess for her husband, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Eleanor had a voice, and she used it to speak up against poverty and racism. She had experience and knowledge of many issues, and fought for laws to help the less fortunate. She had passion, energy, and a way of speaking that made people listen, and she used these gifts to campaign for her husband and get him elected president-four times! A fascinating historical figure in her own right, Eleanor Roosevelt changed the role of First Lady forever.

Who Was Harriet Beecher Stowe? Dana Meachen Rau 2015-04-21 Born in Connecticut in 1811, Harriet Beecher Stowe was an abolitionist, author, and playwright. Slavery was a major industry in the American South, and Stowe worked with the Underground Railroad to help escaped slaves head north towards freedom. The publication of her book, Uncle Tom's Cabin, a scathing anti-slavery novel, fanned the flames that started the Civil War. The book's emotional portrayal of the impact of slavery captured the nation's attention. A best-seller in its time, Uncle Tom's Cabin sealed Harriet Beecher Stowe's reputations as one of the most influential anti-slavery voices in US history.

Who Was Nelson Mandela? Pam Pollack 2014-01-09 As a child he dreamt of changing South Africa; as a man he changed the world. Nelson Mandela spent his life battling apartheid and championing a peaceful revolution. He spent twenty-seven years in prison and emerged as the inspiring leader of the new South Africa. He became the country's first black president and went on to live his dream of change. This is an important and exciting addition to the Who Was...? series.

Who Was Steve Jobs? Pam Pollack 2012-03-29 Steve Jobs, adopted in infancy by a family in San Francisco, packed a lot of life into fifty-six short years. In this Who Was...? biography, children will learn how his obsession with computers and technology at an early age led him to co-found and run Apple, in addition to turning Pixar into a ground-breaking animation studio. A college dropout, Jobs took unconventional steps in his path to success and inspired the best and the brightest to come with him and "change the world."

The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat Oliver Sacks 2021-09-14 In his most extraordinary book, the bestselling author of Awakenings and "poet laureate of medicine" (The New York Times) recounts the case histories of patients inhabiting the compelling world of neurological disorders, from those who are no longer able to recognize common objects to those who gain extraordinary new skills. Featuring a new preface, Oliver Sacks's The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat tells the stories of individuals afflicted with perceptual and intellectual disorders: patients who have lost their memories and with them the greater part of their pasts; who are no longer able to recognize people and common objects; whose limbs seem alien to them; who lack some skills yet are gifted with uncanny artistic or mathematical talents. In Dr. Sacks's splendid and sympathetic telling, his patients are deeply human and his tales are studies of struggles against incredible adversity. A great healer, Sacks never loses sight of medicine's ultimate responsibility: "the suffering, afflicted, fighting human subject."

The World I Live in Helen Keller 1908 The World I Live In by Helen Keller, first published in 1908, is a rare manuscript, the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world. Patrañas que me contó mi profe James Loewen 2019-10-21 Los estadounidenses han perdido el contacto con su historia y el profesor James Loewen nos muestra por qué. Tras examinar doce de los principales libros de texto de la enseñanza secundaria estadounidense, concluyó que ninguno consigue hacer que esta sea mínimamente interesante o memorable para los estudiantes. Marcados por una embarazosa combinación de patriotismo ciego, optimismo sin sentido, pura desinformación y mentiras descaradas, estos manuales omiten casi toda la ambigüedad, pasión, conflicto y dramatismo del pasado de los Estados Unidos. Para Loewen, la historia debe enseñarse como un análisis del contexto y las causas de los hechos. Mas allá del caso particular estadounidense, reflexiona sobre cómo narramos y enseñamos la historia de nuestros países desde el sistema educativo, y el peligro de caer en la trampa del relato único. Un texto imprescindible sobre la importancia de la historia como materia lectiva y la forma en la que esta se imparte en las escuelas.

Who Was Leonardo da Vinci? Roberta Edwards 2005-09-08 Leonardo da Vinci was a gifted painter, talented musician, and dedicated scientist and inventor, designing flying machines, submarines, and even helicopters. Yet he had a hard time finishing things, a problem anyone can relate to. Only thirteen paintings are known to be his; as for the illustrated encyclopedia he intended to create, all that he left were thousands of disorganized notebook pages. Here is an accessible portrait of a fascinating man who lived at a fascinating time—Italy during the Renaissance.

Who Is Malala Yousafzai? Dinah Brown 2015-08-11 Malala Yousafzai was a girl who loved to learn but was told that girls would no longer be allowed to go to school. She wrote a blog that called attention to what was happening in her beautiful corner of Pakistan and realized that words can bring about change. She has continued to speak out for the right of all children to have an education. In 2014 she won the Nobel Peace Prize.

The Story of My Life Helen Keller 1903

My Religion Helen Keller 2007-03-01 Helen Keller had absolutely no hearing or eyesight from the age of two, but became one of the most inspiring and well known people to have ever lived. For a number of years she functioned, in her words, simply as "an unconscious clod of earth." Then quite suddenly, she experienced the impact of "another mind" within her own. Despite not knowing where it came from or how it got there, she awoke to a new awareness of being able to talk and listen with her hands. She learned to read and write, wrote at least ten books, and attended college. Her religion developed from living deeply within her spiritual self, cut off from normal sensation, and spending her life on a spiritual plane. She incorporated her own experiences with the teachings of Emanuel Swedenborg, a mystic born in 1688, and the Swedenborgian Church. Swedenborg, like Keller, had experienced other realms of spirit and transmitted deeper teachings that Helen saw with great clarity. She wrote this book after receiving many requests for her to describe her religious beliefs.

La Luz de Rafaela Escenas de la Vida de una Maestra Muy Especial Ann Díaz 2019-03-17 La luz de Rafaela, escenas de la vida de una maestra especial, ofrece un emotivo pasaje de la historia de la educación especial contextualizado en la realidad, que tiene como protagonista a la insigne pedagoga Rafaela Rodríguez Placer y su alumno sordomudociego. Rafaela, fue una las mujeres pioneras en el acceso a la universidad, una autoridad en la enseñanza especial a la que dedicó toda su vida, que gozó de una reputación excepcional en el Colegio Nacional de Sordomudos y Ciegos de España, y que obtuvo, además de otras condecoraciones, la Gran Cruz de Beneficencia. Entre sus méritos está el haber educado al niño sordomudo y ciego César Torres Coronel. Algo por entonces considerado un milagro (un hecho que recuerda lo acontecido, pocos años antes, en Estados Unidos, entre la maestra Anne Sullivan y la famosa sordociega Hellen Keller). Rafaela establecerá una relación muy estrecha con su discípulo a quien llevará con ella a Galicia, a su finca orensana para disfrutar las vacaciones veraniegas y seguir con la enseñanza. Este relato aporta, además, al lector el conocimiento sobre el panorama de los inicios de la historia de la enseñanza especial en España, recuerda algunos de los pocos sordomudos y ciegos que han tenido la suerte de haber sido educados a lo largo del siglo XIX y principios del XX, y desvela la biografía de la maestra del Colegio Nacional de ciegos Rafaela Rodríguez Placer que merece ser rescatada de su olvido.

Who Was Betsy Ross? James Buckley, Jr. 2014-12-26 Born the eighth of seventeen children in Philadelphia, Betsy Ross lived in a time when the American colonies were yearning for independence from British rule. Ross worked as a seamstress and was eager to contribute to the cause, making tents and repairing uniforms when the colonies declared war. By 1779 she was filling cartridges for the Continental Army. Did she sew the first flag? That's up for debate, but Who Was Betsy Ross? tells the story of a fierce patriot who certainly helped create the flag of a new nation.

Diary of a Mad Diva Joan Rivers 2014-07-01 From the headline-making, New York Times bestselling author of I Hate Everyone...Starting With Me comes another intimate glimpse into the delightfully hilarious mind of Joan Rivers. When her daughter Melissa gives her a diary for Christmas, at first Joan is horrified—who the hell does Melissa think she is? That fat pig, Bridget Jones? But as Joan, being both beautiful and introspective, begins to record her day-to-day musings, she realizes she has a lot to say. About everything. And everyone, God help them. The result? A no-holds-barred, delightfully vicious and always hilarious look at the everyday life of the ultimate diva. Follow Joan on a family vacation in Mexico and on trips between New York and Los Angeles where she mingles with the stars, never missing a beat as she delivers blistering critiques on current events, and excoriating insights about life, pop culture, and celebrities (from A to D list), all in her relentlessly funny signature style. This is the Diary of a Mad Diva. Forget about Anais Nin, Anne Frank, and Sylvia Plath. For the first time in a century, a diary by someone that's actually worth reading.

Who Was Mother Teresa? Jim Gigliotti 2015-05-05 Born a humble girl in what is now Albania, Agnes Bojaxhiu lived a charitable life. She pledged herself to a religious order at the age of 18 and chose the name Sister Teresa, after the patron saint of missionaries. While teaching in India, where famine and violence had devastated the poor, Teresa shed her habit and walked the streets of Calcutta tending to the needs of the destitute. Her charity work soon expanded internationally, and her name remains synonymous with compassion and devotion to the poor.
