English Studies in Indian Universities Ravindra Baburao Tasildar 2019-01-22
Right from its formal introduction in India in 1835, through Thomas B. Macaulay's Minute, English has been intrinsically linked with the employment prospects of Indians. During their regime, the British promoted English education to fulfil the requirement of English-knowing Indians for administrative purposes. Owing to globalization, the last few years have witnessed the opening up of thousands of lucrative job opportunities for graduates proficient in English. English has gained importance in India as the language of opportunities. In colonial India, English education was a passport to government jobs, while in the twenty-first century, proficiency in English is essential for private sector jobs. This book examines the development of curricula in English in Indian universities vis-a-vis the needs of second language learners studying in Special English programmes of Bachelor of Arts (BA). It also reflects on how globalization has strengthened the connection between English and employment.

An Appointment with Death Sachin Nirhali 2014-04 Amit Choudhary is a vile, unscrupulous builder of Thane, a bustling satellite city of Mumbai. Although married, itches to lay girls on and off. Vaishali Chitnis, a college-going girl, gets ensnared in his murky net, but suddenly, the tables turn and Amit finds himself at the receiving end. While there are many out there who are willing to give anything to see him dead, foremost among them is an eminent lawyer, Amrish Agarwal, who has an ax to grind against him. The lawyer's hassled legal secretary, Ashu Kulkarni, has vowed to get to the root of the murky matter and send him packing from the legal firm. Suddenly Amit gets murdered in his "Chandrama" bungalow, sending shock waves throughout the city. And while the police are still on the lookout for the elusive killer, a blackmailer, out of the blue, appears on the scene. To make matters worse, a girl is suddenly found dead in mysterious circumstances beneath the secluded seven-story building. Time is running out for the police, who are still groping in the dark. They have to swoop down now on the killer, who is still at large, and apprehend him before the third murder rocks the city.

Urban Restructuring, Power and Capitalism in the Tourist City Khalid Madhi 2019-04-17 The book focuses on the processes of urban restructuring, power relations and the political economy of touristic authenticity. Through an in-depth analysis of Marrakesh, Morocco, the book proposes a comprehensive analytic framework. It highlights the issues of (post)coloniality, ideology, heritage-commodification, subjectivity and counter-conduct in the shadow of global capitalism. It explores how power relations and political economy have shaped the city of Marrakesh over the past few decades, formulating new subjectivities. It reveals how urban policy's sole purpose is to boost tourism in the city, bringing into question the long-term resilience and success of tourism as an economic activity and a policy choice. This book considers how the well-being of city residents is submitted to such policies, conforming to certain forms of appropriation - of land, culture and memory. The example of Morocco helps us understand a phenomenon affecting many other cities internationally. This book will be valuable to academics and practitioners across disciplines, including geography, political science, urban planning and architecture.
