1. The imagery reveals Scout's sense of fear during the children's late-night excursion to Boo Radley's house. As Scout watches her brother Jem attempt to peek in a window, she is paralyzed by a shadow she at first thinks is a tree, but is actually a man wearing a hat. She identifies the mysterious shadow by the moonlight

FOR HIS BOOK. WHEN at the first I took my pen in hand Thus for to write, I did not understand That I at all should make a little book In such a mode: nay, I had undertook To make another; which, when almost done, Before I was aware I this begun. And thus it was: I, writing of the way And race of saints in this our gospel-day, Fell suddenly into ...

The Seven Penitential Psalms

My days have declined like a shadow, * and I am withered like grass. But Thou, O Lord, endurest for ever: * and Thy memorial to all generations. Thou shalt arise and have mercy on Sion: * for it is time to have mercy on it, for the time is come. For the stones thereof have pleased Thy servants: * and they shall have pity on the earth thereof.
