Rhythm Vincent Barletta 2020-03-22 More than the persistent beat of a song or the structural frame of poetry, rhythm is a deeply imbedded force that drives our world and is also a central component of the condition of human existence. It's the pulse of the body, a power that orders matter, a strange and natural force that flows through us. Virginia Woolf describes it as a "wave in the mind" that carries us, something we can no more escape than we could stop our hearts from beating. Vincent Barletta explores rhythm through three historical moments, each addressing it as a phenomenon that transcends poetry, aesthetics, and even temporality. He reveals rhythm to be a power that holds us in place, dispossesses us, and shapes the foundations of our world. In these moments, Barletta encounters rhythm as a primordial and physical binding force that establishes order and form in the ancient world, as the anatomy of lived experience in early modern Europe, and as a subject of aesthetic and ethical questioning in the twentieth century. A wide-ranging book covering a period spanning two millennia and texts from over ten languages, Rhythm will expand the conversation around this complex and powerful phenomenon.

The Middle English Weye of Paradys and the Middle French Voie De Paradis F. N. M. Diekstra 1991 The late Middle English "Weye of Paradys" and its French source "La Voie de Paradis" use the theme of the allegorical journey to Paradise. Essentially they are popular guides to confession, adaptations for the layman of more specialized works in Latin such as Raymond of Pennaforte's "Summa de Poenitentia," This edition presents critical texts of both "The Weye of Paradys" and "La Voie de Paradis" and analyzes the relations of the English text with its immediate (French) and distant (Latin) sources. This work makes the English and French texts available in print for the first time and places them in the wider field of popular penitential literature.

Transcendentalism Overturned Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka 2011-04-02 This collection offers a critical assessment of transcendentalism, the understanding of consciousness, absolutized as a system of a priori laws of the mind, that was advanced by Kant and Husserl. As these studies show, transcendentalism critically informed 20th Century phenomenological investigation into such issues as temporality, historicity, imagination, objectivity and subjectivity, freedom, ethical judgment, work, praxis. Advances in science have now provoked a questioning of the absolute prerogatives of consciousness. Transcendentalism is challenged by empirical reductionism. And recognition of the role the celestial sphere plays in life on planet earth suggests that a radical shift of philosophy's center of gravity be made away from absolute consciousness and toward the transcendental forces at play in the architectonics of the cosmos.

Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade's Journeys from Ethnography to the Avant-Garde Nefeli Zygopoulou 2021-05-14 This book presents a comparative study of Tristan Tzara (1896-1963) and Mário de Andrade (1893-1945), analysing their contributions to oral language traditions and to the body of criticism on modernism. This is the first work to offer an analysis of Tzara's posthumously published prose Personnage d'insomnie, and the first in the English language that explores de Andrade's libretto for the opera Café, as well as other examples of their poetry and prose. The Romanian Jewish poet and writer Tzara, later a naturalised French citizen, became a central figure in the European avant-garde from 1916 when he took part in the Dada Movement. Mario de Andrade, the Brazilian poet, writer and musicologist of mixed origins, was a contemporary of Tzara and a similarly central figure in the 1922 São Paulo Modern Art Week that defined Brazilian Modernism. Both emerged from very different backgrounds, but they followed a parallel creative path. This book discusses their research and adaptation of various language manifestations, ethnopoetics and folk traditions that led them to the creation of distinct and individual styles. The historical and socio-political events of the late 1930s would later prompt both authors to develop militant poetics. Through chronologically compatible case studies, the reader will discover that Tzara and de Andrade, alongside their playful language, actively criticised cultural imperialism and advocated against hate. Journeys can be physical and intellectual; they can crisscross, leave traces and overlap. This book takes the reader from two starting points, a small Romanian town in the foothills of the Carpathians, and a two-storey house in an unusually tranquil street in São Paulo, Brazil, to the heart of the twentieth-century avant-garde. As it shows, Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade traversed borders and geographical points, and their poetics meet in Mozambique, Parisian cafés and Bantu chants.

The essays penned by eminent and young scholars from around the world examine the many ways Beckett's art crosses borders: coupling reality and dream, life and death, as in Japanese Noh drama, or transgressing distinctions between limits and limitlessness; humans, animals, virtual bodies, and stones; French and English; words and silence; and the received frameworks of philosophy and aesthetics. The highlight of the volume is the contribution by Nobel Laureate J. M. Coetzee, the special guest of the Symposium. His article entitled "Eight Ways of Looking at Samuel Beckett" introduces a variety of novel approaches to Beckett, ranging from a comparative analysis of his work and Melville's Moby Dick to a biographical observation concerning Beckett's application for a lectureship at a South African university. Other highlights include innovative essays by the plenary speakers and panelists – Enoch Brater, Mary Bryden, Bruno Clément, Steven Connor, S. E. Gontarski, Evelyne Grossman, and Angela Moorjani – and an illuminating section on Beckett's television dramas. The Borderless Beckett volume renews our awareness of the admirable quality and wide range of approaches that characterize Beckett studies.

Source De Vie - Contact Avec L'Origine De L'Être Léonard Lassalle 2015-12 Dans Source de Vie, Léonard Lassalle nous parle d'expériences peu habituelles qui se tissèrent tout au long de sa vie après avoir commencé, à l'âge de 19 ans, un entraînement spirituel appelé le Latihan Kejiwaan de Subud. Ces expériences n'arrivèrent pas avec une intention voulue par son mental ou mues par ses passions, mais plutôt en suivant en toute confiance ce qui venait spontanément à lui de sa nature profonde. Source de Vie emmène le lecteur dans l'intimité de la vie spirituelle de Léonard et de l'influence que cette pratique spirituelle eut sur sa vie familiale et sur l'aspect matériel de sa vie quotidienne. Mélinda, sa femme, pratique aussi le Latihan Kejiwaan, ils vivent aujourd'hui en Provence.

Le Présent de Marie-Antoinette Marie-Alix Ravel 2011-11-02 Le Présent de Marie-Antoinette est un roman basé sur l'histoire vraie d'une jeune femme, Kiera Hermine, accablée par le cauchemar répétitif d'une vieille roue sur le pavé, de pieds sur des marches en bois, une affreuse sensation de froid dans le cou et un goût horrible de métal dans la bouche. Le néant. Le silence. La mort. Ces cauchemars s'estompent avec l'âge mais lui reviennent soudainement en mémoire à la naissance de sa fille. Une voyante rencontrée par hasard lui apprend qu'elle serait la réincarnation de Marie-Antoinette. Afin de découvrir la vérité, Kiera consulte un hypnothérapeute : sa vie antérieure se manifeste et l'entraîne dans une aventure où le temps n'existe plus. Marie-Alix Ravel est psychothérapeute et hypnothérapeute spécialisée dans les vies antérieures. Lorsque Kiera Hermine vient la consulter, elle se passionne pour son cas étrange. Les rêves, les inexplicables coïncidences vont pousser Marie-Alix à mener une enquête approfondie, guidée par une forte intuition naturelle et de nombreuses années d'expérience. Marie-Alix Ravel est d'origine française et a vécu quatorze ans au Canada avant de partir s'installer à Los Angeles en 2006. Marie-Alix a écrit pour le magazine Elle-Québec et est apparue dans plusieurs émissions télévisées au Canada. Elle a aussi été consultante pour l'industrie du cinéma à Los Angeles.
