Provided Cornelius Quek 2018-03-13 Jehovah Jireh. "God provides." But how? For whom? And, most urgently, when? "Trust in God" is an easy catchphrase for believers, but Dr. Cornelius Quek claims that many Christians haven't actually experienced what it means to actively, wholeheartedly, uncomplainingly give their financial security and daily needs to God. For anyone in need who cognitively knows that God provides financially but lacks experiential proof, this book presents the opportunity to understand God's care in a whole new light while being inspired by Cornelius's own testimonies of God's miraculous provision. Cornelius goes beyond superficial speculation about God and money to prove that the key to our provision is in the past: God doesn't just provide—He has already provided. From heaven's perspective, provision is a done deal. It's the Christian's current reality, not just a good idea for the future. The biblical keys, prayers, and declarations in each chapter will enable believers to experience God's provision for themselves, right here, right now.

If you are asking yourself these questions and are searching for fulfillment in your life, Born Again... Now What? will provide you with solid guidelines to strengthening your relationship with God. Dewayne Johnson has clearly outlined the tenets of Christian faith. Providing a rich, detailed history of the Gospel, this insightful book also includes fresh interpretation of Scripture with supporting explanations. Supernatural Provision Mark Hendrickson 2011-12-20 Discover God's Law of Blessing What if you didn't have to worry about making a living? What if God has already provided all you need to live comfortably? It's true! Supernatural Provision presents a supernatural and higher way of entering into the New Covenant Law of Blessing. But to him who does not work but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness (Romans 4:5). Through God's Law of Blessing and supernatural provision, you can work for Kingdom purposes—regardless of money—and see God provide your financial needs. Many "Kingdom finance" books simply chat about making money with a Christian perspective, but this cutting-edge, truly exceptional book challenges believers with the biblical revelation of freedom from laboring to make a living. Jesus exhorted us to not worry about tomorrow, to neither toil nor sweat, or even sow and reap our provision, because our heavenly Father longs to be our personal Jehovah Jireh—if we are childlike enough to take Him at His word. Supernatural Provision is full of Holy Spirit-inspired insights, God-breathed Scripture, and relevant personal testimonies revealing the unmerited favor of Heaven's provision that Jesus offers. You will be supernaturally stirred by these revelations—your life will never be the same.

Healing for the Heart Peggy Holt 2012-05 Cancer, fibromyalgia, and rheumatoid arthritis are just a few of the chronic illnesses that plague many Americans, and Christians are not exempt. Living with a serious illness is not easy. The challenges extend far beyond the physical realm, and maintaining a strong Christian testimony is difficult. Growing in godliness and pleasing God do not come naturally. In the midst of such complex challenges, even the most mature Christians need help. They need more than just shared life stories or practical tips for facing their disease. They need more than poignant illustrations to inspire them or amusing anecdotes to make them laugh. While each of these aspects is helpful, what sufferers need most is the encouraging truth of the Bible. Only the supernatural, unchanging Word of God can give genuine comfort and effective help. Healing for the Heart is a devotional designed for Christians who are serious about seeking God's help in their time of illness. The entries are focused on Bible truths and are designed to provide encouragement, instruction, and gentle challenge. Strengthen your heart on a daily basis with this biblically-based and compassionately-shared truth.

A Testimony-Driven Life Astra Williams Brantley, PsyD 2020-08-11 A Testimony-Driven Life Biblical-Stewardship Living, Discipling Disciplers of Disciplers, in an Adversity-Centered World Our hearts weep with Christ and pray with Him in intercession for the saints for they are not "mission ready." Our hearts are grieved to agony with the Holy Spirit because not every Christian is equipped to "disciple disciplers of disciplers." The testimony of God the Father (Who is Jesus Christ), and the testimony of God the Holy Spirit (Who testifies only of Jesus) are not faithfully reflected in "the word of our testimony." So how do we inspire each and every Christian to learn/submit/commit to sharing their own testimony, at all times, in all places, to encourage other Christians, as well as to cause others to come to Christ? How can we inspire God's people to DO THE TRUTH (John 3:21)? When God does a work in us or through us, then we should give Him the glory, by sharing of our personal testimony. As spiritual beings commissioned to live out a physical existence in an adversity-centered world, God, expects much fruit, that is, for us to do just as Jesus did, go and make steadfast disciples capable of making disciples. This is the WHAT of our obedience. Our HOW is to depend on the Holy Spirit as we learn to live/love/serve like Christ (our biblical-stewardship living). WHY? Starting with our singular purpose, a testimony-driven life, that pleases and glorifies God, we know what will be the result, discipling disciplers of disciplers, but we need to understand that "biblical-stewardship living" is HOW we get it done.

the church. There are enough books written that expand upon Christian morals and values. There are volumes of theological works from a countless number of Christian perspectives. A brief glimpse into history uncovers a history of scandal and abuse all perpetrated by the hands of the early Christian church. At this writing, there is a vast Christian subculture with its own art, music, fashion, and cultural forms of expression. Television personalities preach biblical themes of humility and servitude while, at the same time, they purchase private jets and live in ridiculous excess. Small churches are closing at an alarming rate, and larger congregations are getting obscured in the smoke and hype of commercialized worship services. Arguments against "the faith" are becoming increasingly articulate, and media coverage continues to cast a growing shadow over whatever good the church might be accomplishing in the world. In all this, it is easier than ever to be lost. This book is written for the lost. It originated as a result of an epiphany based on an article about the Curiosity rover on the surface of Mars. Once a year, Curiosity would stop and celebrate the anniversary of its arrival on Mars by stopping briefly to sing "Happy Birthday" to itself. Then, once again, it continues through the dry desolation of the planet surface on a path of discovery. When you stop and look past all the scholarly debate and man-made traditions of Christianity and look at the basic message of love and salvation presented in the scriptures, you will discover a beautiful picture. Over time, the simplicity and accessibility of this message has been diluted and overcomplicated. This book is written for the lost soul who, with a little bit of curiosity, has a desire to discover the simplicity of that message. It might be too late to change this world...but maybe we can change that one.

Exploring the Word Rodney E. Whittle 2009-09 This is a daily inspirational study book, based on a pattern to read your Bible through in one year. Rev. Rodney Whittle, along with his congregation, used this plan for many years to read their Bible through; it was such a blessing to him personally. He decided to follow that same format, as he wrote this book. There are two passages to read a day, a morning Old Testament passage and an evening New Testament passage. He would take an inspirational thought he received from that passage and write a study. As he wrote the monthly booklets, he didn't necessarily do them in sequential order and he only lacked eight days of his last month (January), before he passed away. His wife, Grace, worked and completed the eight days that remained, with other materials he had written in times past. Rodney E. Whittle was born in Cereal, Alberta, Canada, on October 29, 1928, and died on September 8, 2007. At his home, two missionaries from the Canadian Sunday School Mission arrived on bicycles to do missionary work. Through the ministry of these men, Rodney was wonderfully converted and called to preach the gospel. He spent the years 1944-1950 at Prairie Bible Institute, where the missionary boys were attending. He met his wife, Grace at Prairie and they married on August 28, 1950 and celebrated 57 happy years together. He had four daughters, ten grandchildren, and six great grandchildren at the time of his passing. He pastored and helped many churches; Houston Texas, Dallas Texas, St.

Louis Missouri, Minneapolis Minnesota, Nassau Bahamas, and Kingston Jamaica. He was pastoring in White Bear Lake, Minnesota, at the time of his death.

Beyond the Cross Rich Beeler 2011-11-15 We all think we understand grace. It is God's amazing forgiveness lavished on wicked, unworthy sinners who come to His cross for salvation. But what happens when the wicked, unworthy sinner is already a Christian? Is the same amazing grace as available to believers who have experienced gross moral failure as it is to unredeemed sinners? Does God really extend grace to restore broken Christians to their place in His kingdom? Beyond the Cross is the story of two such believers and their journeys from darkness back into God's marvelous light. Their stories are living examples that God's grace flows powerfully for all who would seek it—from both sides of the cross.

Jailhouse Journals Mike Mahy 2020-11-24 Incarceration. Pain. Change. Miracles. Spending time in jail isn't easy for anyone who has been forced to have that experience. Spending time in jail for what you deserve is God's and humankind's justice. Spending time in jail out of God's mercy is something completely different. This is what I want to share about in Jailhouse Journals. It was because of God's justice that I got the sentence I deserved for the crimes I committed, but in his mercy, the experience in jail was more than what I had ever expected. To get the help I needed while in jail gave me hope not only for me but also for those who may be reading this to get help from the trap of sexual addiction. The purpose of these journals is to inspire them that God is not only real, but he is also a loving God and will help them change if they are willing to do so, and that there is actually a system of incarceration, called right living community, as a rehabilitation approach to serving a sentence rather than just doing hard time. I am hoping that maybe, just maybe, that anyone reading this can be averted from committing a senseless sexual crime against another because they now have hope and can work up the courage to get the help they need. Finally, this book is also for any victim of sexual offences committed against them so that they can receive inner healing and possibly even work up the ability to forgive their perpetrator for their horrendous acts. I have discovered that forgiveness sets the one doing the forgiving free emotionally, mentally, and spiritually, more so than the one being forgiven. These journals also show that there is a road map to getting specific help; the fact that proper counseling; good cognitive behavior therapy (CBT) courses; support groups such as AA, NA, SAA, and Celebrate Recovery, and even taking an amazing course developed by my chaplain that is called Spiritual Perspective on Sexuality as a means to receiving better emotional wholeness and well-being, making better decisions and developing better thinking patterns. Be set free. Receive healing. Experience transformation. Watch miracles flow!

God's Supernatural Power in You Frank A. DeCenso 2009-05-28 The need for power ministry is as strong today as it was when Jesus and the apostles walked the earth. The need for demonstrations of God's powerful love, exhibited through His church, will demolish strongholds of unbelief and relativism, as well as tear down cultural barriers that may bring confusion when only the words of the good news are shared, but its power is neglected. When Jesus and the apostles proclaimed the good news of salvation to people, works of power accompanied them. Today, the entire church needs mentored in how to bring God's word to the world in power. This book is a prophetic call to engage the mission of bringing God's radical love to this hurting world through power ministry.
