English, a new unit in science, a new song in music class, or a new sport, we frequently put kids in positions in which they feel vulnerable and uncertain, just as I felt in The Nutcracker. In doing so, however, we are giving students the ability to grow, learn, and master something. We are giving them the opportunity to find a

Making each one leave off singing and dancing,
The air, which is mild and pleasant,
And the Season invite one and all
To enjoy the sweetest sleep.
The hunter at the new dawn sets out to the chase,
With horns, guns and dogs;
The quarry flees, and he follows its scent.
Already bamboozled, distracted by the great noise
