See America Creative Action Network 2016-03-22 In homage to America's National Parks and their iconic art posters, this volume features new artwork for seventy-five parks and monuments across all fifty states. "In this sepia-tinged homage" to the iconic National Parks posters "modern artists contribute dazzling new graphics" (Entertainment Weekly). From 1935 to 1943, the WPA's Federal Art Project hired American artist to create posters celebrating the National Parks Service. The icon See America posters inspired Americans to fall in love with the country's landmarks and wild spaces from the Golden Gate Bridge to the Gateway Arch and from the Grand Canyon to the Great Smokey Mountains. Originally published to coincide with the centennial anniversary of the National Parks Service, the Creative Action Network has partnered with the National Parks Conservation Association to revive and reimagine the legacy of WPA travel posters. Artists from all over the world participated in the creation of this new, crowdsourced collection of See America posters for a modern era.

Practical Pyromaniac William Gurstelle 2011-06-01 Combining science, history, and DIY pyrotechnics, this book for the workbench warrior explains humankind's most useful and paradoxical tool: fire. William Gurstelle, author of the bestselling Backyard Ballistics, presents 25 projects with instructions, diagrams, photos, and links to video demonstrations that enable people of all ages to explore and safely play with fire. From Franklin's stove to Diesel's engine, explosive and fascinating tales are told of the great pyromaniacs who scientifically revealed the mysteries of fire such as "Gunpowder" Joseph Priestly, who discovered oxygen; Antoine Lavoisier, the father of chemistry; and Humphrey Davy, whose chemical discoveries and fiery inventions saved thousands of lives. By following the directions inside, the curious can replicate these breakthrough scientists' experiments and inventions from the simply fascinating one-candlepower engine to the nearly magical fire piston and an incredible tornado of fire.

A Book of Miracles Dr. Bernie S. Siegel 2014-10-15 Heartwarming and Heart-Opening Stories Gathered from Decades of Medical Practice Bernie Siegel first wrote about miracles when he was a practicing surgeon and founded Exceptional Cancer Patients, a groundbreaking synthesis of group, individual, dream, and art therapy that provided patients with a "carefrontation." Compiled during his more than thirty years of practice, speaking, and teaching, the stories in these pages are riveting, warm, and belief expanding. Their subjects include a girl whose baby brother helped her overcome anorexia, a woman whose cancer helped her heal by teaching her to stand up for herself, and a family that was saved from a burning house by bats. Without diminishing the reality of pain and hardship, the stories show real people turning crisis into blessing by responding to adversity in ways that empower and heal. They demonstrate what we are capable of and show us that we can achieve miracles as we confront life's difficulties.

Loving Someone Who Has Dementia Pauline Boss 2011-08-09 Research-based advice for people who care for someone with dementia Nearly half of U.S. citizens over the age of 85 are suffering from some kind of dementia and require care. Loving Someone Who Has Dementia is a new kind of caregiving book. It's not about the usual techniques, but about how to manage on-going stress and grief. The book is for caregivers, family members, friends, neighbors as well as educators and professionals—anyone touched by the epidemic of dementia. Dr. Boss helps caregivers find hope in "ambiguous loss"—having a loved one both here and not here, physically present but psychologically absent. Outlines seven guidelines to stay resilient while caring for someone who has dementia Discusses the meaning of relationships with individuals who are cognitively impaired and no longer as they used to be Offers approaches to understand and cope with the emotional strain of care-giving Boss's book builds on research and clinical experience, yet the material is presented as a conversation. She shows you a way to embrace rather than resist the ambiguity in your relationship with someone who has dementia.

Mother of My Son Rachel Allord 2013-05-24 College student Amber Swansen gives birth alone. In desperation, she abandons the newborn, buries her secret, and attempts to get on with her life. No matter how far she runs, she can't escape the guilt. Years later and still haunted by her past, Amber meets Beth Dilinger. Friendship blossoms between the two women, but Beth's son is a constant, painful reminder to Amber of the child she abandoned. When heartache hits, causing Amber to grapple with the answers to life's deeper questions, Beth stands by her side. Yet just when peace seems to be within Amber's grasp, the truth of her past and the parentage of Beth's son comes to light and threatens to shatter not only their worlds, but the life of the teenager they both love.

The Adaptive Landscape in Evolutionary Biology Erik Svensson 2012-05-17 The 'Adaptive Landscape' has been a central concept in population genetics and evolutionary biology since this powerful metaphor was first formulated in 1932. This volume brings together historians of science, philosophers, ecologists, and evolutionary biologists, to discuss the state of the art from several different perspectives.

Geometric Algebra Emil Artin 2016-01-20 This concise classic presents advanced undergraduates and graduate students in mathematics with an overview of geometric algebra. The text originated with lecture notes from a New York University course taught by Emil Artin, one of the preeminent mathematicians of the twentieth century. The Bulletin of the American Mathematical Society praised Geometric Algebra upon its initial publication, noting that "mathematicians will find on many pages ample evidence of the author's ability to penetrate a subject and to present material in a particularly elegant manner." Chapter 1 serves as reference, consisting of the proofs of certain isolated algebraic theorems. Subsequent chapters explore affine and projective geometry, symplectic and orthogonal geometry, the general linear group, and the structure of symplectic and orthogonal groups. The author offers suggestions for the use of this book, which concludes with a bibliography and index.

Live. Learn. Laugh! Mary Ann Crum 2011-09-01 Life is hard. We need to laugh more. God is good. We need to know Him better. _____ A dog who goes nuts in thunderstorms. A car lost in the Walmart parking lot and a pool table lost off the back of a truck. A rescue mission to save a fish in the woods. A less-than-stellar round of golf. The incessant racket of a GPS system and a gutterpecking bird. An iguana on a leash. Tacky yard art. Every day is loaded with opportunities to learn more about the amazing character and ways of God. All of life can become a parable if we have eyes to see and ears to hear the One who created us to know and love Him. God calls to us in even humdrum places and moments, whispering, "Here I am. Talk to Me. Listen to Me. Learn from Me." And sometimes, "Laugh with Me." Here you'll enjoy a sampling of humorous newspaper columns written by Mary Ann Crum that will entertain, encourage, inspire and challenge you, as they have thousands of her readers over the past decade. Each section of columns is followed by thought-provoking, soul-searching, practical questions for group discussion and individual study that will get you into God's word—the only words that can truly transform our hearts and lives. It's refreshing Bible study with a twist. Jump on in. Live. Learn. And by all means, laugh. Mary Ann Crum earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Louisville and is the author of one previous book, "A Giggle Goes A Long Way." She is a wife, mom, and grandmother, and has been a newspaper reporter and columnist, university public relations writer, tennis coach, church youth director, children's home houseparent, and women's ministry director. She lives in Greenwood, S.C.

Radiant Days Michael A. Fitzgerald 2007 Frustrated by the dot-com mania of the '90s, hapless American Anthony Sinclair abandons his pampered life in San Francisco to follow the gorgeous but enigmatic Gisela on a search for her lost son in Hungary. In Budapest they meet a group of expats, including Marsh, a brilliant, embittered war correspondent. Anthony thinks he has found in Eastern Europe what his former life was missing: enterprising young people openly questioning U.S. values, determined to remake their own worlds. But when an odd and edgy love triangle emerges and he discovers his mission with Gisela is much darker than he imagined, Anthony is thrown deeply in flux. Moving from the tattered romanticism of Budapest, through the sparkling Dalmatian coast, and into the brutalized landscape of inland Croatia during the last days of the Balkan War, the novel takes a shocking turn of irreversible consequence.
