K - Kaltenbrunner Arthur Birago 2021-07-05 Hidden away in a safe of the State archive of Upper Austria, the author discovered a secret letter written by Hitler's chief torturer, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Gestapo chief and head of the Reich Security Main Office. He wrote this letter to his children while waiting for his execution, and had it smuggled out of Nuremberg prison, concealed in the bra of a female visitor. The sentimental, mendacious memories of his childhood and upbringing in the countryside, from where he climbed to the zenith of power in the Nazi ranks, ultimately enjoying the privilege of direct access to Hitler, are Kaltenbrunner's legacy to bring about a future all-powerful Fourth Reich. With the eyes of the world upon him, the former "lord of the concentration camps" chose a defense strategy of total denial and even dared to claim that his signature under countless execution orders was a forgery. His shocking statements during cross-examination evoked deep disgust and contempt amongst Göring and the other war criminals on trial. This book is a meticulously researched report, based on historical facts, of the last months of Ernst Kaltenbrunner's life, drawing the reader deeper and deeper into his distorted and abysmal psyche until sitting face to face with the Nazi monster inside his cell on death row. A thrilling read!
